1996 COIN MARKET REVIEW: IS THERE A REBOUND IN OUR FUTURE?

The question that most coin dealers continually ask themselves and other coin dealers is, "Will the coin business ever bounce back? Or, are we, as an industry, destined to a long series of misfires?" Every time the market begins, what we believe to be a positive run toward higher levels, it seems to backfire as the higher Bids erode just as quickly as they had risen. While we feel that the coin market should do an about face, we do not want to make any predictions as to future direction for two reasons: 1. Our sole job is to report wholesale prices so dealers will have a handle on determining their own internal marketing strategies. 2. We have felt that prices have been reasonably valued for several years now and that the market should have already headed back up. Obviously, this has not been the case. However, as the various series have drifted lower over the last few years, each decline meant that the element of risk had also diminished. Eventually, there has to be a point where the market is cheap enough that it attracts an ample amount of fresh money so as to have a major influence on the entire market. This is what the majority of coin dealers believe in and continue to look forward to as each year begins anew.

What happened in 1996? Unless you have been hiding under a rock all year, you should have a pretty good idea of what the overall market did in 1996. While the certified sight-unseen market continued to show negative results for the year (see Table A), it is apparent that the majority of dealers are becoming disenchanted with this type of buying strategy. Knowledgeable retail customers are not likely to buy coins sight-unseen except in very rare instances. Therefore, dealers are becoming more reluctant to Bid competitively on a sight-unseen basis. Most dealers will offer considerably higher levels for accurately graded coins that they can examine before purchasing. The exceptions here are when they purchase strictly generic coins; in the cases of very common coins with large availability, it is not too likely that a buyer will pay much over sight-unseen levels. Anyway, an increase in sight-seen Bidding is probably the single most major development in the market for 1996.

Most dealers feel that sight-seen trading will increase significantly while sight-unseen takes a backseat except for usage as the basis of basal value. As we can see from the results of numerous auctions throughout the year, there have been some very strong results for better date coins. As long as dealers and collectors have ample opportunity to view the coins in which they have an interest, prices have proven to be very competitive. Anytime there is a population of less than 10 specimens available of a popular collector coin, competition is bound to be very enthusiastic.

In fact, we are seeing the results of various dealers who are modifying their business strategies to somewhat mirror the more successful auction companies. Most auction companies have extensive mailing lists that they make use of to advertise their auctions. As a retail dealer, if you have high-value rarities to offer your clients, it makes sense to advertise these opportunities to the largest number of potential buyers. Several dealers feel that this strategy is paying off as they are finding more buyers who are creating greater competition for these rarities. The buyers for high-value rarities feel that the long-term potential for these infrequently encountered issues is exponentially greater than quantities of lower priced coins.

Getting back to how the coin market did in 1996, we find that by comparing the various charts in the CDN (Greysheet), the overall market for accurately graded coins (as represented by only the Greysheet information) was down a mere .87%.

The following table (Table B) shows how each chart fared by the end of the year. The percentage is derived from all the grades listed within each and every chart. As you can see from Table B, some series actually rose by year's end.

U.S. Gold was one of the areas that completed the year on the upside. Of course, this increase is barely visible at +.87%, but it nonetheless is higher. There were a couple of issues that helped this average tremendously (the $20 Lib I in MS65 & 67), but on the other hand, $10 Indians caused a lot of havoc in the lower grades. See Table C for year-end results of the best and worst achievers.

Morgan Dollars, always one of the more popular series in numismatics, found some extensive gains for 1996. Led by the 1895 Proof (all grades increased from VG to MS65), numerous issues posted gains of 25% and more. On the other end of the spectrum, a few issues lost considerable ground; this occurs occasionally in the MS67 issues when population numbers increase. See Table D for a recap.

Peace Dollars clearly showed some promise as several advanced collectors helped boost the prices of many of the high grade specimens. Assisted

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer, wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGIT-UNSEEN market, such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

Subscription Information: A subscription to the weekly Coin Dealer Newsletter (Greysheet) is: $54.00 for six months, $98.00 for one year and $162.00 for two years. Phone: (310) 515-7369 by the availability of the Jack Lee Peace Dollar Collection, popularity continues on the rise for these low-pop issues. Not all Peace Dollars exacted such lofty heights. Many of the more common issues suffered some drastic downturns, especially toward the end of the year. See Table E for consolidated results.

Proof and Mint Sets were extremely active throughout the year; for the most part, this activity occurred at the posted Bid levels at the time of sales. However, there was a multitude of Sets (both Proof and Mint) that rocketed to sizable gains by the end of the year. While there was some discounting of various Sets during the year, it was hardly noticeable that any issues fell so dramatically. Look at the two charts (Table F & E) for some rather startling "Hits" & "Misses".

1996 COIN MARKET REVIEW: IS THERE A REBOUND IN OUR FUTURE? Part II

Last month we began a review of 1996. In such a review, there is so much information to cover that we could not do the whole year justice in just one article. Even by presenting charts of only the most important series, there are more charts than space would allow in one Monthly Supplement examination. Further, a review of 1996 would not be complete without analyzing the results of the major auctions throughout the year. There were so many important coins that sold last year that we still may not have enough space to discuss them all. So, we will not try; what we will do is list some of the more important highlights of the various auction companies. If we leave something out that you feel should have been included, we apologize.

Before we get into auction highlights, let's begin with a continuation from last month with Type charts. Table H exhibits several of the issues in Proof Type that gained as much as 26% for the year. The most significant dollar increases occurred in the Flying Eagle (Proof 65) and the Capped Bust Quarter, Large Size (Proof 64) gaining $2,000 and $2,250, respectively. At the other end of the table we find various issues that responded poorly by year's end. The Liberty Seated Dollar, W/M, fell $450 in Proof 63; this was down 18.37%. The Liberty Seated Dime W/A (1853-55), in Proof 64, was down a smaller percentage at -13.33%, but the value of the coin is so much higher that the dollar loss was $2,000.

While Proof Type ended the year down a minuscule -1.16%, Mint State Type, as a whole, ended slightly higher, +.39%. Table J shows the high and low results of the year. The Liberty Seated Half Dollar N/D (1839), showed a whopping increase of 60%, up $3,000. A few other issues also increased substantially: Liberty Cap Large Cent, in MS63 R&B-$1,300, +30.95%; Liberty Cap Large Cent, in MS63Brown-$775, +20.81%; and the Twenty Cent Piece, in MS65-$650, +18.57%. The largest dollar decline was the Liberty Seated Dollar W/M, in MS65; it fell $3,500 for a net decline of 15.56%. This happens to be one of those low-pop issues that may fall in price because one or two more coins were certified.

Circulated Type (Table K) seems to have fared much better than most other areas of the market. Here, we had a net gain of 2.11%. As you might guess, the large increases belonged to some very inexpensive coins. We might note here that the buyers of these issues last year were looking for large quantities. These are the kind of coins that usually go into beginner

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer, wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

Subscription Information: A subscription to the weekly Coin Dealer Newsletter (Greysheet) is: $54.00 for six months, $98.00 for one year and $162.00 for two years. Phone: (310) 515-7369 sets. You might surmise that we can expect an increase in avid coin collectors in the year 2010.

The next two charts reveal that 1996 was not the year of the Commemorative; especially the original early Commems. Table L indicates that Silver Commems were down -4% for the year. This may not seem so bad if you only owned all the issues that had risen. There were several that gained a considerable percentage; such as the Long Island, Delaware, and

California, all in MS66. However, the Missouri in MS66 lost $6,000 a -38.71%

When you get into the Gold Commemorative series, the ups and downs represent big dollars, especially in the higher grades. Table M shows that Gold Commems had declined -6.38% for the year. Although there were a few gainers, the highest being +10.71% (the 1926 Sesquicentennial $2 ½, in MS66), there were many more big losers, depressed as much as -32.14% (the 1915S Pan Pac $1, in MS63).

YEAR OF THE AUCTION

The year 1996 will go down in history as one of the most exciting when future students of numismatics study and research auctions. There were as many as 40 major auctions that represented over $85,000,000 in total prices realized.

The grandest sale of the year was probably the Eliasberg Sale, conducted by Bowers and Merena, or was it the.....oh, I don't know; there were so many highlights, let's just concentrate on some of the more specific highlights from each of the auction companies.

Bowers and Merena, Inc.-the most notable sale being the Eliasberg Sale. Several sales produced the following highlights: Pan Pac $50 round, MS64 @ $70,950; 1838O Half Dollar, PCGS Pr63 @ $104,500; 1855 TII $1 Gold, PCGS64 @ $25,300; 1861 $20 Gold TI, PCGS65 @ $36,300; Eliasberg 1913 Liberty Nickel, @ $1,485,000(now in a NGC Pr66 holder); 1894S Barber Dime, Pr 64+ @ $451,000; 1796 No Pole Half-Cent, MS65+ @ $522,500; 1855 Kellogg & Co. $50 Territorial, @ $220,000.

Heritage Numismatic Auctions, Inc.-several Signature Sales and Bullet Sales produced these highlights among others: 1918/17D Buffalo Nickel, MS62 @ $29,700; 1918/17S Standing Liberty Quarter, MS65 @ $57,750; 1880 Flowing Hair Stella, Pr 64 @ $101,200; 1884 Trade Dollar, NGC Pr63 @ $50,600.

Stack's-public sales just about every other month created numerous highlights: Rare 1870S Seated Dollar, VF with graffiti removed $66,000; 1916/16 Buffalo Nickel, Ch. Au @ $19,800; 1797 Draped Bust Half Dollar, Ch. Bu @ $176,000; 1933 $10 Indian, BU @ $90,750.

Superior Stamp & Coin- various sales produced the following highlights: The only known 1943D Bronze Lincoln Cent, NGC64 @ $82,500; 1793 Chain Cent (America), MS63 @ $88,000; 1875 $3 Gold, PCGS Pr64 @ $82,500; 1828 8/7 $5 Gold, PCGS55 @ $137,500.

RARCOA-Akers- a combined sale contributed the following results: 1933 $10 Indian Gold, PCGS64 @ $121,000; 1920S $10 Indian Gold, NGC65 @ $143,000; 1907 Wire Edge $10 Indian, PCGS66 @ $74,250; 1907 Rolled Edge $10 Indian, PCGS65 @ $71,500.

Butterfield-Johnson-Gillio- highlights from their sale showed results of the following: 1844 Seated Dollar, PCGS Pr62 @ $20,900; 1851 Seated Dollar, Original, PCGS63 @ $35,750; 1852 Seated Dollar, Restrike, PCGS Pr63 @ $24,750.

Sotheby's of New York- two major sales created the following results: 1888 $20 Liberty, PCGS Pr64 @ $45,100; 1796 No Stars $2 ½ Gold, PCGS AU53 @ $46,750; 1874 $20 Liberty, NGC Pr64 @ $66,000; 1907 Ultra High Relief Saint Gaudens, "finest known Proof" @ $825,000; 1855 Wass, Molitor & Co., BU @ $170,500.

Spink America- the Byron Reed Collection produced some phenomenal results: 1797 Draped Bust Half, Choice/Gem @ $176,000; 1796 $2 ½ Gold, Ch. Unc. @ $231,000; 1797 $5 Gold (16 Stars), AU @ $137,500; 1829 $5 Cap Head Large Size Gold, Choice Unc. @ $374,000.

These highlights are by no means the entire list of rarities that sold in last year's auctions. It would be difficult to argue that there were any of more importance than these. We apologize for any oversights that we may have omitted. From these charts and the auction highlights, you can see that 1996 was a very fascinating year. Let's hope that 1997 is just as exciting and this time next year we are showing the results of all the charts on the rise.

Seeing Double: The Popularity of Doubled-Die Varieties

by David W. Lange

As the coin industry continues to mature, one of its fastest growing segments is the field of variety collecting. Variety coins may be defined as those which stray from the norm as the result of some unique quality in the dies from which they were struck. Unlike error coins, which are usually random in nature and rarely identical, variety coins will appear similar and reflect the character of a single pair of dies. When properly identified and numbered, these varieties become highly collectable.

Among the most popular of varieties are doubled-die coins. In fact, a specialty club was recently formed whose focus is placed solely on doubled-dies. These coins exhibit multiple images of the design elements or legends on one or both sides as the result of doubling (or even tripling or quadrupling) inherent in the dies. Most dealers are already familiar with some of the more popular and marketable doubled-die coins such as the cents of 1955 and 1972 or the nickel of 1916, but how many dealers are aware of how die doubling occurs and can distinguish this type of doubling from common and less valuable forms of doubling?

The answer seems to be that relatively few dealers know the difference. This fact was driven home to me by the great number of inquiries I've received from dealers whose coins exhibited the most common form of doubling, usually called "strike doubling." This occurs when a die is loose in the press and it twists when separating from the struck coin, causing a lateral shift in the design elements and legends. The resulting doubled images have a flat, shelf-like quality which, while interesting, is not especially rare and carries no premium among knowledgeable dealers and collectors. This type of doubling is especially common in the lower third of the obverse of Mercury Dimes, and these are the subject coins most often brought to me for examination.

As the market for doubled-die coins grows, the stakes for dealers who hope to trade in these coins become much higher.

Just as making a mistake in grading can be costly, so too can misattributing a variety. Fortunately, the solution for the first problem has become the solution for the second, as well. I'm speaking of certification. As third-party grading services move into the certification and encapsulation of variety coins, the guesswork is largely removed from the attribution of varieties. As long as the personnel examining a submitter's coins are competent, the correct attributions will be made.

There still exists a challenge for the dealer, however, as he or she must decide whether a coin is worth the cost of certifying. This requires that the coins first be screened by someone having the ability to distinguish between marketable varieties and miscellaneous oddities of little or no value. This takes a bit of practice and familiarity with a few popular references. Therein lies the greatest obstacle to wider acceptance of variety trading, as many dealers are reluctant to learn new skills and to spend even a few moments with simple books that the specialists have already memorized from cover to cover.

The subject of doubled-die coins is at once both simple and complex. The root cause of all die doubling is a misalignment between hub and die during the die-sinking process. The hub bears a right-reading, relief image of the coin design and looks very much like a coin mounted at the end of a cylinder. The die, however, receives an impression from the hub and becomes a reverse-reading, negative image of the coin. More than one impression is required to fully sink the die, and it is sent to the furnace for annealing (heat softening) before the second impression is taken. If the two impressions are not in perfect alignment, the result is a doubled-die.

While this operation is simple enough to understand, the subject becomes more complex when it's revealed that there are actually no less than seven types of die doubling (or eight—the experts disagree). These are defined by the orientation between the misaligned first and second impressions. The first recognized type of doubling (known as Class I doubling) occurs when the second impression is simply rotated around the die's centerpoint, creating a duplicated image which is uniformly spaced throughout. An example of this class of doubling is the 1955 doubled-die cent (see example), the grand-daddy in the field of popular doubled-die coins, not because it's the oldest occurrence of this variety but because it was the first to catch on with collectors in a big way. Among doubled-die collectors, this variety is more properly designated as (1-O I). This is shorthand

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer, wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

Subscription Information: A subscription to the weekly Coin Dealer Newsletter (Greysheet) is: $54.00 for six months, $98.00 for one year and $162.00 for two years. Phone: (310) 515-7369 for Sequential Number One, Obverse doubling, Class I. In contrast, the 1916 doubled-die nickel is an example of Class V (five) doubling. While there are indeed several classes of die doubling recognized by specialists, what they are and how to distinguish one class from another is not important to dealers. What is important is that dealers learn to distinguish coins that display true die doubling from those which exhibit other forms of doubling or have simply been damaged subsequent to minting.

As mentioned previously, one way to know for certain is to submit a suspected doubled-die coin to a grading service which certifies varieties. The downside to this plan is that the coin may come back with a grade alone, because it did not qualify as a recognized variety. Depending on the basic value of the coin in that particular grade, this can be costly and frustrating to a dealer, and it will not win a new recruit to the field of varieties. A better way is to know in advance whether or not a coin is a doubled-die variety. Though there are numerous books listing such varieties for particular series, the most popular doubled-dies may be found numbered, illustrated and priced in The Cherrypickers' Guide to Rare Die Varieties. This handy reference by Bill Fivaz and J. T. Stanton is presently in its third edition and provides quite an education in doubled-dies and other popular varieties. For those desiring a quick course in how to distinguish doubled-dies from other forms of doubling, J. T. Stanton offers a free, illustrated, four-page monograph which explains it quite clearly. This can be obtained by sending a self-addressed and stamped envelope addressed to him at P. O. Box 15487, Savannah, GA 31416-2187.

The Certified Coin Dealer Newsletter and The CDN Monthly Supplement list the most widely traded doubled-die varieties, those whose popularity is well established among general dealers and collectors. Unlike the less familiar doubled-dies, which are usually desired solely by specialists in the variety field, the coins found within the Grey Sheet and Blue Sheet are popular with date-and-mint collectors of their respective series. In addition, these varieties are among those listed in the Red Book (A Guide Book of United States Coins by R. S. Yeoman), and holes are included for them in most coin albums.

The only coins which currently satisfy these criteria for universal popularity are the 1955 and 1972 doubled-die cents and the 1916 doubled-die nickel. These three varieties alone are listed and priced within the Grey Sheet and the Blue Sheet (while overdates such as the 1942/1 dime and the 1918/7-S quarter are technically doubled-die coins, they're viewed in an entirely different light by the coin market and will not be included in this study). To understand the impact that a major doubled-die variety can have on the value of an otherwise common date, low value coin, one need only compare the prices for the ordinary coin to those of the doubled-die variety for that same date and mint. The following Bid values were taken from the February 14, 1997 editions of The Coin Dealer Newsletter and The CDN Monthly Supplement and illustrate quite dramatically this difference in value:

DENOM.	DATE	MS60	MS63	MS64	MS65
One Cent	1955	—	* .06	—	—
One Cent	1955/55	530.00	875.00	2750.00	12000.00
One Cent	1972	—	* .02	—	—
One Cent	1972/72	130.00	155.00	165.00	225.00
Five Cents	1916	27.00	45.00	60.00	190.00
Five Cents	1916/16	14000.00	40000.00	43000.00	75000.00

* These values are prorated from the Bid price for a BU roll.

It's clear from these price differentials that of the three subject coins only the 1916 nickel has any measurable value when not a doubled-die variety. While the 1955 doubled-die cent is quite rare in the higher Mint State grades, a fact reflected in the high bid value for MS65, examples have been certified at this lofty level. The combined NGC/PCGS population for this variety graded MS65 RD, as of January 1997, stood at 12 pieces. In contrast, the 1972 doubled-die cents are relatively common, with a combined population of 968 pieces graded MS65 RD and some 204 graded higher. The 1916 doubled-die nickel, however, is a great rarity in all grades, and gems are essentially unknown. NGC has certified none finer than MS64 (two examples), while PCGS has graded two coins as MS63 and none in higher grades.

The impressive values registered for doubled-die varieties of these otherwise common dates speaks well for the potential of other doubled-die coins which are currently increasing in popularity. Everyone's hopes were raised with the February 1995 discovery of a bold doubled-die obverse variety for the Philadelphia Mint cents of that year, but these hopes faded as enormous quantities of the new variety coins turned up over the next several months. This variety is not listed within The CDN Monthly Supplement, and its future as a "must-have" coin for Lincoln Cent collectors is unclear. It's interesting to note, however, that the Professional Numismatists Guild included a hole for this variety in its recently issued Penny Boards. Since these are targeted at attracting new collectors to the hobby of coin collecting, this new generation of collectors may view the 1995 doubled-die cent in a more favorable light than do market veterans.

As doubled-die coins in general gain a greater acceptance within the coin industry, and as more of these varieties are certified by the major grading services, dealers are destined to become more familiar with their respective values. This will ease the trading of these coins considerably, as this segment of the market may currently be a bit intimidating to those not already familiar with it. As in so many areas of numismatics, a little bit of reading goes a long way toward making the difficult more understandable, and dealers may want to pick up a few of the popular variety books to keep handy during those occasional idle moments at the bourse table.

David W. Lange is Director of Research for Numismatic Guaranty Corporation and the author of various books. He may be contacted at NGC by writing to: POB 1776, Parsippany, NJ 07054. A special thanks to J.T. Stanton for providing the doubled-die photos.

Julian M. Leidman

Professional Numismatist & Consultant

With complete confidentiality, I will custom tailor my services to fit your numismatic needs. I can assist in the formation of your collection; with more than 30 years as a professional, I can locate the U.S. coins or currency you need. I can provide you with confidential advice, just as I have for collectors, other dealers, attorneys and corporations. I can help you find those hard-to-get coins and develop your collection. I can act as your personal representative for any numismatic transaction; take advantage of my decades of experience for a maximum commission of 10%. I can also assist in the orderly disposition of your holdings, to make sure that you receive top dollar in the marketplace. Between buying and selling, I can appraise your collection or individual pieces. You know your needs best; contact me for expert assistance.

The Generic Coin Market Trap

They May Look Pretty...
But Beauty's Only Skin Deep!
A Look At the "Un-Rare" Coin Market

by Mike De Falco

The inspiration for this article occurred while watching a local business channel recently. A gentleman who appeared to be very knowledgeable and sincere was dispensing investment advice. He was expounding on the virtues of investing in MS65 Morgan Dollars at what he referred to as "today's bargain levels." He was offering them at just $89 each and was quick to point out they were "bid" at $525 apiece during the last market peak in 1989. As further evidence of the exceptional investment potential he felt these coins offered – he informed the viewers that historically each new coin market peak has been higher than the previous one – leading the prospective buyer to believe that not only will MS65 Morgans be valued at $525 apiece again, but in all likelihood will be worth even more!

Uneducated collectors and investors are being led down the primrose path by all manner of smooth talking salesmen and self-serving marketers at an alarming rate. Armed with half-truths, these individuals are comparing today's low generic coin prices with the last market highs in an attempt to create the illusion of a great buying opportunity.

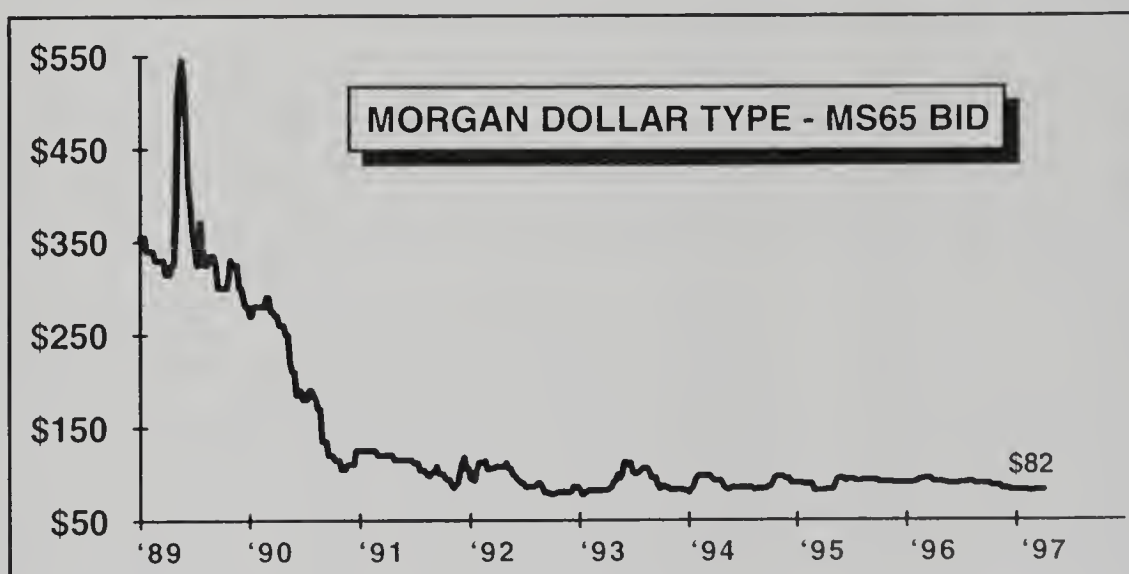

Alfred Lord Tennyson once said; "A lie that is all of a lie can be met with and fought outright. But a lie that is partly the truth is a harder matter to fight." It's time to open Pandora's box!

The days when "all" coins performed well are gone! If capital appreciation is a primary consideration – a sound, focused acquisition strategy based upon unbiased research are the keys to unlocking the profit potential of rare coins today.

The fact is, most U.S. coins are currently trading for a fraction of their 1989 highs. Consequently, low price alone should not be the sole criteria by which to determine future profit potential. Since the last market high there has been a population explosion of monumental proportions. Many coins have become so abundant they go begging for buyers as they continue to drift lower in value – making them less than a prudent choice for acquisition.

For instance, common date MS65 Morgan Dollars are currently selling for 15% of their 1989 high. On the surface they may appear to be a good buy, but upon deeper inspection the truth will begin to emerge. MS65 Morgan Dollars are the most populous of all certified U.S. coins. PCGS has graded 179,936<sup>1</sup> of them – a dramatic increase from just 30,575 coins graded eight years ago. The actual supply of MS65 Morgans has increased by 586% since 1988 – that's a 73% average annual population increase.

Though that figure is alarming, of greater concern is the total number of mint state Morgan Dollars graded by PCGS. According to the November 1996 Population Report, 1,210,771 uncirculated Morgans have been graded by PCGS. That's right ... OVER 1.2 MILLION mint state specimens. To put it in another perspective, mint condition Morgan Dollars comprise OVER ONE-THIRD OF ALL THE U.S. COINS graded by PCGS thus far – providing irrefutable proof that Morgan Dollars are the most abundant certified U.S. coin in mint condition. Is it any wonder that specimens graded MS64 through MS67 have lost 80% to 90% of their value since 1989?

Now consider this: The current capitalization requirements for the MS65 Morgan Dollar market (just for PCGS coins) stands at nearly $14,000,000. If you add MS63's and MS64's to the mixture, that number grows to a staggering $33 MILLION PLUS – and there appears to be no end in sight due to the sheer quantity of Morgan Dollars yet to be graded.

It is a well known fact that in 1959, the U.S. Treasury still had 180 MILLION Silver Dollars under its control at the various facilities. These coins were distributed to the public at face value from 1962 to 1964. When Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon put an end to this face

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer, wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

value distribution on March 26, 1964 – there were 2.9 MILLION Silver Dollars left – most of which were from the Carson City mint. These coins were later distributed by the GSA (at exorbitant prices) through the mail.

Other well known hoards have been dispersed over the years. The Redfield Hoard (407,596 mostly scarce and rare date Morgan and Peace Dollars) and the Continental Illinois Bank Hoard (close to 1 MILLION superb quality Silver Dollars) are among the most famous. Less publicized hoards continue to enter the marketplace as well. For instance, a hundred plus bag lot (100,000 coins) was distributed about six months ago, and as I write this article I am aware of a forty plus bag lot (another 40,000 coins) that is in the process of being dispersed. If the picture isn't clear yet – millions of Morgan Dollars have yet to surface. The preponderance of these yet-to-surface hoards assures the coin market (and the grading services) of a constant supply of Morgan Dollars for years to come – thereby exacerbating a population explosion that has already decimated an over-saturated marketplace.

Make no mistake about it, Morgan Dollars are not the only series to be afflicted with the yet-to-surface hoard syndrome! U.S. gold coins continue to be imported from Europe in large quantities thanks to enormous supplies in Switzerland, Germany and many other countries. In fact, one of my associates was involved with the distribution of a hoard in excess of $25 MILLION in U.S. gold coins (believed to have originated in Russia), as well as the El Salvador U.S. gold hoard which had a total market value in excess of $50 MILLION!

If you think MS65 $20 Saint Gaudens are a prudent acquisition today, based upon the fact they are selling for only 23% of their previous high price, I encourage you to reconsider. PCGS has graded 15,792 MS65 Saints, an increase in actual supply of 496% since 1988. NGC has graded 20,270 – a population explosion of 1,599% since 1990! The current capitalization requirements for the MS65 $20 Saint Gaudens market (including both PCGS and NGC coins) stands at over $32 MILLION! If we remove the NGC coins from the mix and add up PCGS graded Saints – MS60 through MS64 – the capitalization requirements swell to an astonishing $168 MILLION PLUS! As with the Morgan Dollar market – it appears the situation will only become worse as more coins are graded.

My research indicates PCGS has graded a total of 334,696 mint state $20 Saint Gaudens – making it the second most populous U.S. certified coin in mint condition. Additionally, there have been 128,672 uncirculated Type 3 $20 Liberties graded by PCGS. When the mint state population figures for Morgan Dollars, $20 Liberties and $20 Saint Gaudens are tallied, the combined total for these three series is 1,674,139 coins. In other words – NEARLY ONE-HALF OF ALL THE U.S. COINS graded by PCGS thus far consist ENTIRELY of Morgan Dollars and Twenty Dollar Gold pieces!

Although these three issues are undeniably beautiful (and very popular among collectors), to refer to them as "RARE" is a misnomer. The fact is, they head up the list of coins I regard as the "UN-RARE" coin market and are without a doubt super abundant and readily available in large quantities. This is not an unusual aberration. These coins have always been around in huge quantity, it simply took the information revolution (i.e., the advent of the PCGS and NGC Population Reports) to bring it to the surface in black and white. Remember, common coins are just that – common! Try as you may, a common issue cannot be magically transformed into a rare coin, any more than a sow's ear can be made into a silk purse – it's a numismatic fact of life!

Therefore, if long-term capital appreciation is your primary goal it would behoove you to avoid the purchase of any common dates from these series. Although I've painted a bleak picture of the Morgan Dollar and U.S. Twenty Dollar Gold piece markets, it is noteworthy to mention that there are many truly rare and desirable dates within each series that would be a prudent choice for acquisition in an aggressive, growth-oriented numismatic portfolio.

Rare coin collecting can be a supremely satisfying hobby as well as a richly rewarding investment. To achieve this goal, it is imperative to define areas of proven rarity with a well established pattern of high demand and value in the marketplace – then focus your buying strategy accordingly. Above all else, never blindly follow investment recommendations no matter how enticing they may sound – but test all advice in the light of facts uncovered through unbiased, independent research!

Julian M. Leidman

Professional Numismatist & Consultant

With complete confidentiality, I will custom tailor my services to fit your numismatic needs. I can assist in the formation of your collection; with more than 30 years as a professional, I can locate the U.S. coins or currency you need. I can provide you with confidential advice, just as I have for collectors, other dealers, attorneys and corporations. I can help you find those hard-to-get coins and develop your collection. I can act as your personal representative for any numismatic transaction; take advantage of my decades of experience for a maximum commission of 10%. I can also assist in the orderly disposition of your holdings, to make sure that you receive top dollar in the marketplace. Between buying and selling, I can appraise your collection or individual pieces. You know your needs best; contact me for expert assistance.

Vol. XXII No. 5

May 9, 1997

Single copy price: $4.00

Eliasberg Sale Emphasizes Originality

"Sold, for a hammer price of $1.65 million!" With his words, Q. David Bowers had just made numismatic history. Add to that total a 10 percent buyer's fee and the final selling price of this coin is $1,815,000. This is a new world record price for a United States coin. It is also the second time that a U.S. coin has sold for a million dollars at public auction. That honor also went to the Eliasberg Collection Auction of a 1913 Liberty Head Nickel last year.

This was not just another auction! This was the final portion of the Louis E. Eliasberg Sr., Collection. This segment featured Seated Liberty 20-cent pieces, Quarter Dollars from 1796-date, Half Dollars from 1794-date and Silver Dollars from 1794 through the Eisenhower Dollars 1971-1976. It also had some Gold and Silver Commemoratives, Medals, Tokens and Paper Money.

The Louis E. Eliasberg Sr., Collection was the only United States Collection complete by date, Mint and denomination. And, the final portion of this magnificent collection was sold at public auction April 6-8 in New York, by Auctions by Bowers and Merena, Inc., Wolfeboro, N.H. This auction was in cooperation with Stack's, New York.

The fact that the 1804 Dollar reached the million dollar plateau was not much of a surprise because it had been widely expected to do this. But, the fact that its final price approached the two million dollar level was incredible, catching many off-guard.

After much applause and congratulations to the new owner, Greg Roberts representing Spectrum Numismatics Inc., the auction took a break from the suspense-charged auction room atmosphere at the St. Moritz Hotel in Manhattan. This was an auction room that was packed with a standing-room-only crowd of more than 350 dealers, collectors and media people.

The media was there in a big way. Representatives from ABC, CBS, CNN, New York 1, The Wall Street Journal, The Baltimore Sun Newspaper were on hand along with all the usual numismatic publications. The New York University school paper also had a couple of reporters writing about the event.

This kind of media attention is very good for the coin market. It brings attention to the general public about the excitement, history and interest of our industry. It points to the exceptional demand for originality, quality and rare United States coins. It reminds everyone that the coin business may be just a sleeping giant waiting to emerge in the 21st century the way it did back in the peak periods of the seventies and eighties.

It also points out that the rare coin market is very strong and robust at a time when the inflation rate is relatively low, as measured by the consumer price index. The prices of the precious metals, especially gold and silver have been languishing at levels below what many analysts have predicted for 1997. Gold has still failed to have a sustained increase above the $400 per ounce mark and silver continues to falter after its recent jump above the $5 per ounce price.

However, the rare coin market is definitely alive. Dealers are buying coins for their clients, pursuing coins for their collections which will equal or add to the overall quality of the collection. Collectors are interested in up-grading and adding those difficult to locate key and semi-key dates. This demand provides a strong, solid base for the coin market and one that could propel it upward in 1997/98.

Collectors are buying quality, rarity and pedigree. They have become more sophisticated in their buying habits, paying attention to a myriad of numismatic information that has hit the market in recent years. Many books and updated information have been published on Bust, Seated Liberty and Barber coins. So, collectors do not mind paying above current levels for specific dates and Mints because they know that the opportunity to obtain these dates are few and far between. The Eliasberg Collection Auctions were just the right opportunities.

The Eliasberg Auction was unique and 1804's do not come along everyday. However, it is considered by many in numismatics to be the King of all U.S. coins. This world record specimen is the Stickney/Eliasberg Class I, original 1804 Dollar. It is one of the finest quality of all 1804 Dollars and one of just eight original Class I Dollars. According to Spectrum, this coin has already been placed in a collection.

Besides the highest price ever paid for a single United States coin, the Eliasberg coins were realizing exceptional demand throughout the sale by a large representation of coin dealers and some, well-heeled collectors.

Bust Coinage was doing very well as were the Seated Liberty coins. The quality of the Eliasberg Draped Bust and Capped Bust Half Dollars was amazing. It took over three hours for the auctioneer to call this portion of the sale. Besides having every date, including the major rarities of the series, the Bust Half Dollars had many serious collectors looking to fill in some gaps in their collection.

Some highlights of the early Half Dollars included a Flowing Hair 1794, About Uncirculated 58 Overton 101 which sold for $77,000; a Flowing Hair Mint State 63 1795 O-113a, considered to be the finest known, brought $68,750; and, the three Draped Bust, Heraldic Eagle classic rarities, an MS63, prooflike 1796 15 Stars O-101, an MS63, prooflike 1796 16 Stars O-102 and an MS60 1797 15 Stars O-101a brought $110,000, $143,000, and $104,500, respectively.

Capped Bust Half Dollars had their finest hour, or should I say hours. How often does the rare coin community have the opportunity to bid on two 1817/4 Half Dollars within one month? But, after the recent $100,000 plus sale of a Very Fine 1817/4 by way of private treaty, the Eliasberg Extremely Fine 45, presumably the finest of seven known specimens, brought $209,000.

Finding an Uncirculated 1801 Half Dollar is not an easy proposition. But the Eliasberg Collection accommodated us with a handsome MS62 example. Bidders also took a liking to this coin increasing their bids to the final $31,900 price. Do not think that only the rare dates and varieties capture the big bucks. Not true. Some dealers in attendance picked the common 1806 Pointed 6, Stem Not Through Claw O-109 as an unbelievable rare coin. Unbelievable not for its Rarity 1 status, but for its condition. Its catalog description of MS65 did not do

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer, wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

this coin justice. Even among experts, it was picked as a favorite. Incredibly, it became a six-figure common date Draped Bust Half Dollar realizing $126,500.

But, that was not the only six-figure Capped Bust Half Dollar to sell on that day. Besides the 1817/4, $103,500 was paid for a Proof 65 1818 O-113.

Early Proof coins are not often found and this is believed to be one of only six Proof examples dated 1818.

However, even the total of six can be optimistic due to duplicate counting. None of the six specimens have been seen at the same time. Another Proof 65 Half Dollar dated 1827 Square Base 2, O-132 brought $110,000. Again, as was the case of the 1818, few examples exist, certainly less than 10 known.

When one talks of superb quality, the Eliasberg Half Dollars come to mind. Leading the list of superb quality Capped Bust Half Dollars has to be the Proof 65 to Proof 66 1832 O-123. This coin had outstanding flawless surfaces and was involved in a bidding war on the auction floor. Finally, its sale price of $225,500 was paid. Intense competition was prevalent throughout the Eliasberg Auction. Dealers battled each other and collectors as they tried to buy coins for their clients, their own collections and their inventory.

A restrike Proof 66 1835 Capped Bust Half Dollar also brought a winning bid above the $100,000 price level; it realized $121,000. Quality and rarity combined to forced dealers and collectors to bid this jewel to the prominent six-figure level.

Still, consider an auction so rich with quality and rare coins that some go unnoticed. What would ordinarily be heralded as a front cover highlight has been designated as just another coin, even though it is a classic rarity and rarely appears for sale. The 1838-O Capped Bust, Reeded Edge Half Dollar was available grading Proof 60 or finer, according to the catalog. There are only 11 known specimens of this rarity and it is also important for being the first New Orleans Mint Half Dollar. After a heated auction battle, it sold for $121,000. Furthermore, the new owner is quite pleased with the amount paid.

Barber Quarters and Half Dollars were being bid to levels that has many wondering why price levels are this high. The fact is as a group, the Eliasberg Barber Quarters and Half Dollars were in outstanding condition. Many agreed that it is the finest collection of Barber coins to hit the market. This coupled with the fact that there are very few major collections left to be dispersed sent Barber collectors scurrying for these super quality specimens.

The recent formation of the Barber Collector Society along with the new books on Barber coins has helped increase the number of Barber coin collectors. These collectors have more knowledge of each series. They are looking for the more difficult to find dates, some once thought of as common. They knew that the Eliasberg Collection offered a golden opportunity that would not be repeated.

Consider some of these Barber Quarter highlights, an 1892-S Type II reverse, grading MS66 brought $7,700. This is a first year of issue and the first San Francisco Mint Barber Quarter. Many attributes contributed to its strong price, but $11,000 was paid for an MS66, prooflike 1894-S. Other dates bringing strong bids include an MS67 1897-O at $15,400 and 1903-O grading MS66 and realizing $8,800.

While all the business strikes enjoyed strong prices, the Proof issues had a fabulous day of their own. Consider some of these prices. A Proof 67 1901 sold for $17,600; a Proof 66 1897 brought $7,700; and, a Proof 67 1907 claimed $5,940.

Barber Half Dollars also brought very strong prices. The standout was a variety not often seen in Mint State condition and certainly not high Mint State condition. We are referring to the 1892-O Microscopic O variety. It sure did not bring a microscopic price at $59,400. It is the finest specimen known to exist. More and more collectors are looking to add varieties to their collections. As the demand for varieties increases, so does its price.

While the Barber Half Dollar series is void of a classic rarity, it does have some dates which collectors are finding a challenge in obtaining in Mint State condition. Demand was evident for some Mint State semi-key dates including an MS65/67 1892-O that sold for $18,700 and an MS65/66 1896-O selling at $44,000.

Morgan Dollars enjoyed super strong bids. Dealers and collectors had specific want lists for many dates and varieties and had every intention of fulfilling these needs. Opportunity is an important ingredient when discussing the needs of well-heeled collectors and this was an opportunity of a lifetime and potential buyers were bidding accordingly.

The Eliasberg Collection offered key date after key and semi-key date in superb condition from the tough New Orleans Mint Dollars of 1886 and 1892-1897, to the equally demanding San Francisco Mint coins such as 1883, 1884, 1887, 1888, and 1892-1897. There were also difficult-to-locate in high quality Carson City and Philadelphia Mint dates.

Demand for key and semi-key date Morgan Dollars was so strong, there were nine Morgans selling for $100,000 or more. The key date 1889-CC was the highlight. This coin was listed as MS66, Prooflike and sold for $462,000. This is possibly the highest price ever paid for a Morgan Dollar. The $253,000 paid for an MS66/67 1895-O is the highest price ever paid for this date. The Eliasberg Sale set many record prices.

While it is easy to see why the prices were strong, it is also obvious to understand why every auction or every inventory cannot contain the likes of Eliasberg rarities. The coin market has not jumped into the stratosphere overnight due to this auction. This was a special auction with special coins.

What it does indicate is that there is strong collector demand for key and semi-key dates; and a very strong interest for high-quality, common dates. It suggests that the potential for new collectors is present. It tells potential investors that quality, rare coins can advance in value. It indicates the historical aspects of collecting coins and enjoyment gained by studying Early American Money. All of these reasons bode well for a market that is on the verge of breaking out on the upside.

Julian M. Leidman

Professional Numismatist & Consultant

With complete confidentiality, I will custom tailor my services to fit your numismatic needs. I can assist in the formation of your collection; with more than 30 years as a professional, I can locate the U.S. coins or currency you need. I can provide you with confidential advice, just as I have for collectors, other dealers, attorneys and corporations. I can help you find those hard-to-get coins and develop your collection. I can act as your personal representative for any numismatic transaction; take advantage of my decades of experience for a maximum commission of 10%. I can also assist in the orderly disposition of your holdings, to make sure that you receive top dollar in the marketplace. Between buying and selling, I can appraise your collection or individual pieces. You know your needs best; contact me for expert assistance.

MATTE PROOF $20 SAINT GAUDENS

True Rarity And Exceptional Value ...
A Winning Combination!

By Silvano DiGenova

Proof gold is the ultimate rendering of the minter's art. Often referred to as the "creme de la creme" of numismatics, proof gold has a long-established history of being highly prized and valued in the marketplace. In fact, the first U.S. coin to sell for more than $100,000 at public auction was a proof gold coin. The "Jay-Ulmer" specimen of the 1875 $3 gold piece realized $150,000 when offered for sale at auction in May of 1974. A Proof 63 example of the same date sold for $110,000 at auction in 1991, and this transaction occurred at the worst time in the rare coin market since 1982. These two examples concisely illustrate the resiliency of high quality, RARE proof gold ... even under exceptionally adverse market conditions.

Proof gold is unquestionably the rarest group of U.S. coins, hence, it is among the most expensive with the majority of issues valued at $10,000 apiece and up. Despite its prohibitive price structure, proof gold remains immensely popular with both collectors and investors alike. Countless individuals tirelessly endeavor to assemble complete sets by year, type and/or series. From the standpoint of the sheer joy of collecting - and the additional prospects for future capital appreciation - few other areas can match proof gold.

By definition, each proof issue is struck a multiple number of times on carefully prepared planchets. Because gold is the softest of all coinage metals, the surface of every proof gold coin is extremely fragile. This factor, combined with minuscule original mintages, renders pristine examples extraordinarily scarce and valuable.

Proof gold coins were first minted in the early 1800's. However, until 1858, mintages were minute. All pre-1858 issues are prohibitively rare and generally available only when prominent collections are sold. In 1858, the U.S. Mint began striking larger quantities of proof gold coins to meet the increasing collector demand. Even so, pristine preservation and availability of proof gold coinage from the late 19th and early 20th century remains modest.

Between 1908 and 1915, the U.S. Mint produced proofs in "matte" and "satin" (Roman) finishes in contrast to the brilliant, reflective, mirror-like finish of traditional proof coins. Today, both varieties are among the most beautiful and highly esteemed coins in the numismatic marketplace. In this article, I will focus on the 1908 to 1915 matte proof $20 Saint Gaudens, beginning with an examination of the current PCGS and NGC population figures.

Consider this: The combined original mintage for all proof $20 Saint Gaudens (1908-1915) is only 687 coins. To date, PCGS and NGC have graded 45.5% of the coins originally produced by the mint. In all fairness, that figure is probably high due to crossovers and resubmissions, so let's reduce it by 10%. Assuming that 20% (this is a very conservative estimate) of the original mintage has been either lost or impaired - approximately 310 coins remain to be certified. Even the worst case scenario precludes any possibility of a large hoard entering the marketplace - decimating values. This exemplifies sound fundamentals, especially when one is considering future price appreciation potential!

For the purpose of this study, I elected to use the grades most often sought by collectors and investors. This comparison demonstrates that PR64 through PR67 $20 Saint Gaudens as a group, are currently trading at approximately 40% of their previous high ... representing an outstanding opportunity for the serious collector or astute investor. Conversely, MS64 through MS67 specimens are trading for only 26% of their previous high. In the final analysis, Proofs maintained 50% more of their value during the bear market slump than did their Mint State counterparts, clearly demonstrating superiority in the area of resilience.

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer, wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

Matte Proof Versus Mint State $20 Saint Gaudens A Compelling Comparison From An Investment Point Of View!

I'm often asked why I enthusiastically endorse the acquisition of Proof 64 or better $20 Saint Gaudens, while strenuously discouraging the purchase of common date Mint State examples. The answer is simple.

PCGS and NGC have cumulatively graded 616,334 Mint State $20 Saint Gaudens (well over ONE-HALF MILLION uncirculated specimens) versus a scant total of 313 Matte Proofs! Personally, I'd rather own an undeniably rare Proof that everyone wants – opposed to an unquestionably common Mint State example that everyone already has!

Rest assured, PCGS and NGC will almost certainly grade hundreds of the thousands more $20 Saints in the years ahead, yet no more than 374 proofs remain to be graded (an utterly impossible number) ... and that's the worst case scenario! Frankly, when I contemplate the magnitude and scope of the European hoards of U.S. gold coins – I wouldn't be surprised to see a million or more additional $20 Saint Gaudens enter the marketplace in the future.

Present date conditions indicate the lack of sufficient demand or capital needed to begin to absorb the enormous surplus which currently overhangs the market – rendering hope of growth and capital appreciation nearly impossible to achieve! In fact, the market continues to slide under its own weight. The following chart shows an immensely compelling comparison of $20 Saint Gaudens, Mint State versus Proof, focusing on capitalization requirements and the cumulative PCGS and NGC population totals (i.e., the actual supply side of the equation).

	Total NGC & PCGS Population	Capitalization Requirements
$20 Saint Gaudens
Grades (MS60-67)	616,334	$324,439,038.00
Grades (PR60-67)	313	$ 7,486.800.00

Reflect for one moment on this thought. You couldn't spend $10 million today on PCGS and NGC graded Proof $20 Saint Gaudens ... if you wanted to! Even if the entire population was available – you'd have $2 million in change left over. Conversely, $10 million wouldn't even begin to put a dent in the current available supply of PCGS and NGC graded common date Mint State coins.

Matte Proof $20 Saints Can Stand On Their Own! It Won't Take Clever Salesmanship Or Slick Promotions, For This Market To Move To Higher Ground

Matte proof $20 Saint Gaudens have a long-standing history of being highly prized and valued in the numismatic marketplace. They are in strong demand from those attempting to complete a proof gold type set or a one-year proof set. There are also many collectors currently assembling comprehensive sets of matte proof gold by denomination, as well as the entire Matte and Roman finish series ($2.50 through $20 denominations). Additionally, there are a number of collectors working on complete collections of proof $20 Saint Gaudens from 1908 to 1915. In fact, I recently had the pleasure of helping a customer achieve the realization of his dream – to build the "finest known" complete set of proof Saints!

A particular favorite among very wealthy collectors and investors who have a propensity for acquiring the rarest, most exquisite coins available – matte proof $20 Saint Gaudens also hold tremendous appeal for those of more modest means – insuring an enthusiastic and consistent base of collector/investor demand in the years ahead.

In the final analysis, it's reasonable to believe that a moderate infusion of fresh capital (say $2 or $3 million) into the Proof $20 Saint Gaudens market would exert escalating pressure on price levels. What would it take to realize the same result in the uncirculated $20 Saint Gaudens market? I'm not sure I am able to count that high! The only logical conclusion one can arrive at from this comparison is ... there is no comparison! Fundamentally speaking, proof specimens are a sound and prudent acquisition at this time. What about uncirculated common dates? Quite frankly, your odds of winning are better in Las Vegas – so ask yourself the following question: Do I want to foolishly gamble with any hard earned dollars ... or exercise prudence and sound judgment concerning my investment capital?

Julian M. Leidman

Professional Numismatist & Consultant

With complete confidentiality, I will custom tailor my services to fit your numismatic needs. I can assist in the formation of your collection; with more than 30 years as a professional, I can locate the U.S. coins or currency you need. I can provide you with confidential advice, just as I have for collectors, other dealers, attorneys and corporations. I can help you find those hard-to-get coins and develop your collection. I can act as your personal representative for any numismatic transaction; take advantage of my decades of experience for a maximum commission of 10%. I can also assist in the orderly disposition of your holdings, to make sure that you receive top dollar in the marketplace. Between buying and selling, I can appraise your collection or individual pieces. You know your needs best; contact me for expert assistance.

EARLY AMERICAN COINAGE — COLONIALS

To Encapsulate Or Not Encapsulate? Are Colonials Hands-On Coins?

By Mary E. Sauvain

There has been much discussion about the advantages and disadvantages of encapsulating early American coinage. Often one sensed that the individuals who participated in the discussion were either adamantly against the entire concept or viewed it in a positive light. It seems to many who chose to remain on the sidelines concerning these discussions that there is no middle ground.

Now that encapsulating these coins has become a reality for a period of time, two questions come to mind: Have any pros or cons from earlier discussions dissipated? Secondly, are there new points to be addressed that were previously overlooked? For instance, will it be possible to list encapsulated early American coinage in a pricing periodical?

For the convenience of addressing early American coinage in this article, we will refer to it simply as Colonial coinage, or Colonials. However, the purist would be quick to point out that "Colonial" could refer to numerous types of coinage over various periods of time throughout the world, not just the United States of America. Colonials in this article include coins and tokens of many types which were used by the colonists in their daily business as well as speculative issues of the times. Construction of a Mint building began shortly after the passage of the Act of April 2, 1792. This was followed, in 1793 by the mintage of our first officially struck U.S. coins by a U.S. Mint—the Half Cent and Cent. Although there was a shortage of U.S. coinage for years and foreign coins were sanctioned until 1857, 1796 is the latest date on Colonials, recognized by A Guide Book of United States Coins (Red Book).

The various grading services themselves take different stances on whether or not to grade and encapsulate Colonial coinage. Since they are all profit motivated companies today, one can only assume that each service's bottom line in deciding whether or not to encase Colonial coinage would be their determination of the profit potential on such a venture.

Of the grading services that are tracked for (Certified Coin Dealer Newsletter) purposes, only two venture into encapsulating the full range of Colonials. They are (Professional Coin Grading Service) (PCGS), Newport Beach, CA, and (Photo Certified Coin Institute) (PCI), Chattanooga, TN. Although they vary in specific services offered, they offer a number of similarities as well when authenticating, grading and encapsulating Colonials. For instance, they both utilize the color designations of red, red-brown and brown to uncirculated copper pieces. They each state their most common grade application to Colonial coins is VF. Also, they both list varieties on their holders according to (Red Book) rather than by the noted authorities' attributions. Both stated that Fugios are their most frequently submitted Colonial. The most common applied grade on Fugios seen by PCGS is EF-AU, whereas for PCI it is VF. (Again for the purist, the Fugio is actually our first Federally approved coinage.) Neither service knowingly encapsulates copies or altered pieces. PCI will encase environmentally damaged items as well as acknowledged restrikes and collector copies and make note on its holder to indicate such.

The published PCGS population report currently does not include Colonials. PCGS stated that when they have graded a sufficient number of Colonials they will be included in their population report.

The other popular grading services choose not to grade and encapsulate Colonials. Numismatic Guaranty Corporation of America (NGC), Parsippany, N.J., does not encapsulate anything prior to the 1792 patterns. ANACS, Columbus, OH, only encapsulates Fugios.

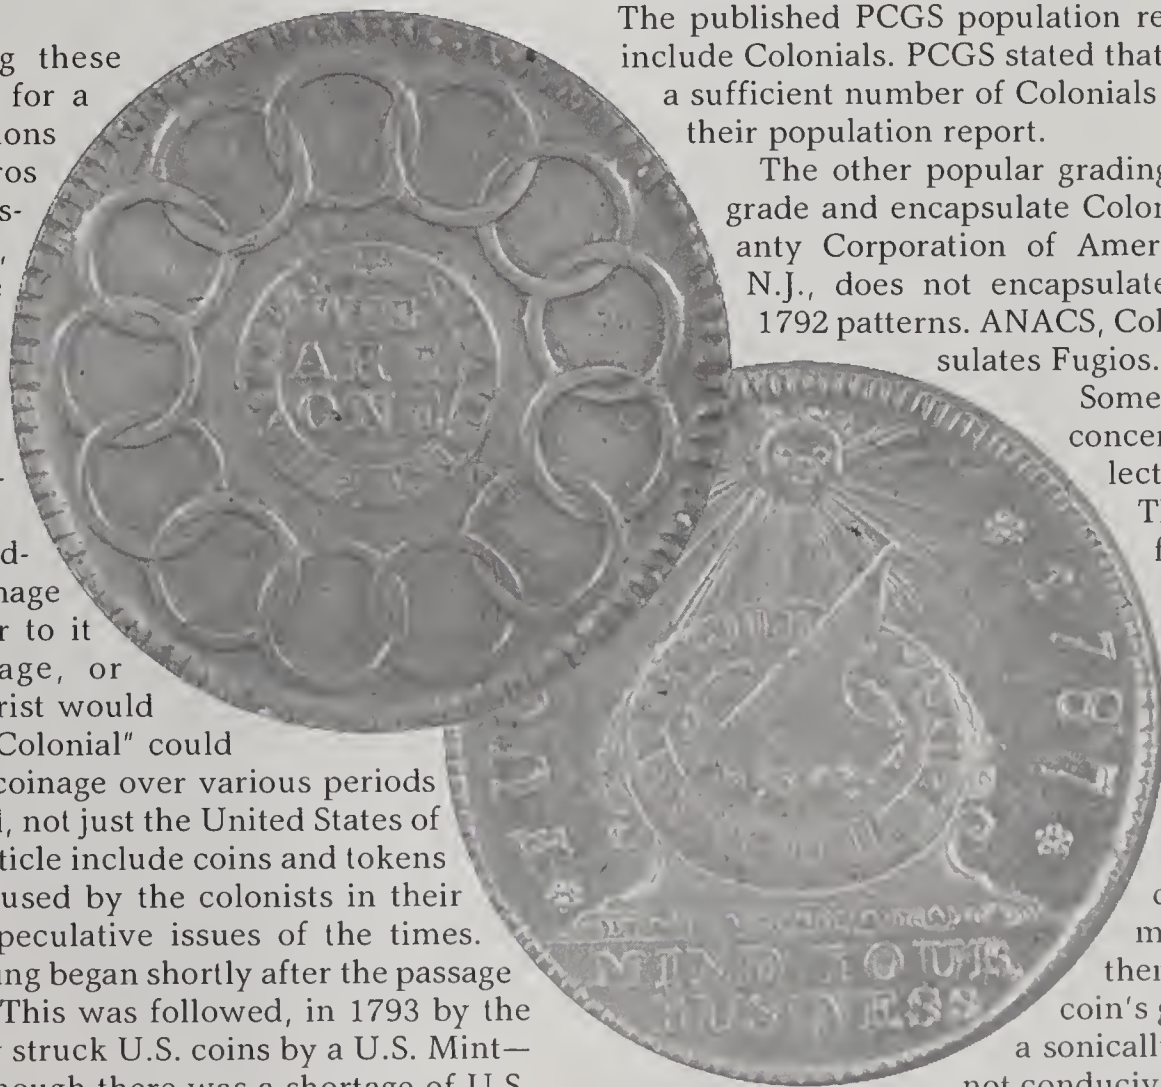

Some encapsulation issues of concern with the serious collector are still with us today.

The individual is restricted from physically handling the coin itself. Collectors enjoy their coins, and that includes handling them. Most Colonial coins are found in circulated condition and the act of physically handling them, when done properly, for the most part will not damage them or adversely affect the coin's grade. Putting a coin into a sonically sealed plastic holder is not conducive to weighing or measuring the piece, nor in determining the edge design or markings. These are all common actions of Colonial collectors.

Another stated disadvantage of encapsulated Colonials is that the label does not include an attribution. The saying "time is money" is certainly true for the grading services. Allowing time to determine specific varieties diminishes time available for grading more coins. But, let's face it. There are not many individuals who know all 350+ varieties of Connecticut, let alone varieties of the numerous Massachusetts silver and coppers and all the varieties of the other Colonials, by heart. Why should we expect a grader to be that proficient?

If the Colonial is encapsulated there is a definite disadvantage if one must view the edge to determine variety. However, in reality we must admit that many raw Colonials are sold

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer, wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market, such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

Subscription Information: A subscription to the weekly Coin Dealer Newsletter (Greysheet) is: $54.00 for six months, $98.00 for one year and $162.00 for two years. Phone: (310) 515-7369 without this designation as well, and many varieties can be determined without viewing the edge. Also, many U.S. coins are sold without such designations such as VAM, Valentine, Sheldon, etc. numbers. Should we expect more for encapsulated Colonial coins than we do for encapsulated U.S. coins? To paraphrase well-known individuals in numismatics, knowledge is powerful. Perhaps this could be viewed as an opportunity to cherry pick Colonials the same as individuals cherry pick other series.

It is often said that it does not matter if a coin is so rare that there are only three known if there are only two buyers. The demand would be insufficient to absorb the supply. One coin would remain unclaimed and the value low. One could never claim there is a profuse Colonial population. However, with the advent of third party grading and encapsulation of Colonial coinage, there appears to be an infusion of "new blood" in this series—both collectors and dealers. Buyers who hesitated to purchase Colonials in the past are now stepping forward. Perhaps these are individuals who have had a long-time interest in this series but were afraid to purchase an unknown quantity (deja vu pre-encapsulated U.S. coinage)? This new demand and interest fuels even greater demand and interest.

More collector interest, in turn, fuels new dealer participation to service these additional collectors. Prior to Colonial encapsulation, dealer participation was primarily limited to Colonial dealer specialists. With the advent of third-party grading, dealers who previously had dealt strictly in U.S. coinage now feel more confident in offering Colonial items.

More interest and demand appear to have caused an increase in the price levels of many Colonials. A Fugio cent, variety I-Z, sold for $18,700 in a May, 1997, Bowers and Merena Auction. Was this due strictly to the rarity of the item, or had the recent increase of Colonial interest fueled the demand, i.e. price?

There are other possible reasons for the perceived general increase of Colonial prices as well. The most obvious would be buyer confidence and increased marketability.

Other possibilities could include more availability of higher quality material. Individuals, dealers in particular, had been quietly acquiring choice, raw Colonials over the last few years in anticipation of the encapsulation availability. These coins were set aside until they could be encapsulated, causing an increased "drought" of choice Colonials. Now that these choice coins are encased, it is only natural that they are reentering the market and filling the void created by the earlier anticipation of future encapsulation. It seems logical that prices would increase during this period.

Has greater exposure to Colonials as a topic increased their demand and, consequently, its price? Recently released and soon to be released publications on this subject, plus education programs designed around this particular topic have been more plentiful lately. Also, the Colonial Coin Collectors Club, Inc., C4, was founded in August 1993, and surprised everyone with an attendance of over 60 interested individuals at their first meeting. This club, plus the Internet, allows for stronger communication among interested parties. All of these features promote interest which, in turn, can spur on price levels.

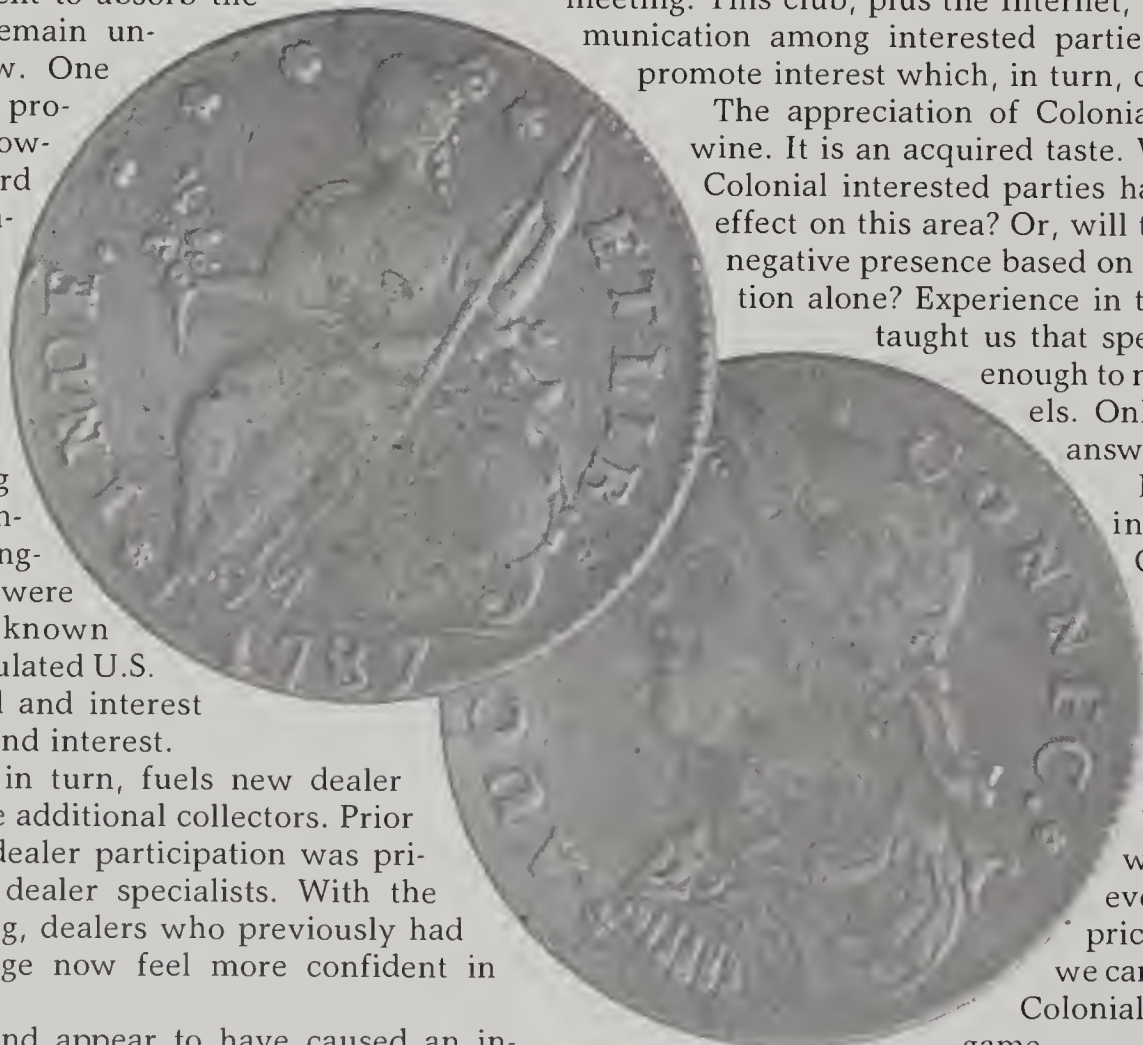

The appreciation of Colonial coinage is like a fine wine. It is an acquired taste. Will the addition of new Colonial interested parties have a positive long-term effect on this area? Or, will the long-term effect be a negative presence based on speculation and speculation alone? Experience in the numismatic area has taught us that speculation by itself is not enough to maintain higher price levels. Only time will give us the answer.

It is refreshing to note an increased interest in Colonials. Whether or not we could ever agree as to the reason for this interest; whether or not we could agree on the fact that encapsulated Colonials are good (or bad) for the hobby, whether or not we could ever agree that new, higher price levels are here to stay, we can agree that encapsulated Colonials offer us a different ball game.

It remains to be seen if encapsulation will create two distinct levels of Colonials—one for encapsulated, choice pieces and another level of lower grade, problem-plagued Colonials.

Pros and cons of any subject are always with us, and human nature has taught us that there will always be new points to ponder. The immediate point I am pondering is, who is going to write the first book on cherry picking Colonials, and when is it scheduled for release?

Julian M. Leidman

Professional Numismatist & Consultant

With complete confidentiality, I will custom tailor my services to fit your numismatic needs. I can assist in the formation of your collection; with more than 30 years as a professional, I can locate the U.S. coins or currency you need. I can provide you with confidential advice, just as I have for collectors, other dealers, attorneys and corporations. I can help you find those hard-to-get coins and develop your collection. I can act as your personal representative for any numismatic transaction; take advantage of my decades of experience for a maximum commission of 10%. I can also assist in the orderly disposition of your holdings, to make sure that you receive top dollar in the marketplace. Between buying and selling, I can appraise your collection or individual pieces. You know your needs best; contact me for expert assistance.

THE ELIASBERG SALE: STANDING LIBERTY QUARTERS

Two SLQs Bring $37,400

by J. H. Cline

that often.

Louis E. Eliasberg, Sr., is the only person to ever accomplish the feat of assembling "a complete set of everything according to the Redbook:" (A Guide Book of United States coins by R.S. Yeoman) including every date, mintmark and denomination of U. S. coins. I believe, this accomplishment won't take place ever again. One important reason is because there have been many rare varieties discovered since he accomplished this feat.

His set was completed in the early 1950's and I think if he had been aware of the other varieties, he would have added them to his collection. Louis Eliasberg, Sr., was a very determined man. "Life" magazine published a great article about him in the early 1950's, with photos of many of his coins. A fabulous article! He was called the "King of Coins" by some of his collector and dealer friends. I personally remember some of the activities chronicled in the various numismatic publications. Articles regarding his then recent upgrade purchases appeared in the publications to which I subscribed in those days: "Numismatic Scrapbook", "The Numismatist", and "Flying Eaglette" just to name a few. I began collecting seriously during this period of time and watched the upstart publications, "Numismatic News" in 1952 and "Coin World" in 1960.

A great debt is owed to Mr. Eliasberg by the numismatic hobby for all his accomplishments. His tireless efforts in pursuing his dream of placing all of these coins into one collection had never been accomplished prior to that time, and obviously has not occurred since that time. I am sure that a tremendous effort of this magnitude will stand in the record book for many years.

I attended the April sale in New York this year, held by Bowers & Merena, Inc., in cooperation with Stack's, New York. My experience at this sale began with a five hour wait to view the lots. It was well worth the wait! Most collections do not have the selection necessary to entice specialists. This

The fabulous Eliasberg sale is now history, and I am sure it will be remembered for many years to come. It will certainly take its proper place in the archives of numismatic history. The liquidation of a collection of coins of this magnitude (rarity and quality) usually takes place once in a lifetime, if sale was certainly the exception, featuring a complete date mint run of Standing Liberty Quarters (my specialty), and that included the rare 1918/7-S overdate; as was true of most of the coins in his collection, these quarters were some of the finest known. Many of the coins sold in the sale have since been encapsulated by the professional grading services, often receiving one to two grades higher than the original catalog grade.

After carefully viewing all the Eliasberg quarters, I would like to share my opinion of some selected dates: (The prices realized include the 10% buyer's fee).

1916:

This coin was not one of the outstanding quarters in the sale. Listed as "MS65. About 75% Full Head". Coin had some bagmarks in the face and some minuscule bagmarks on her leg, which takes the coin out of the gem class, though the other features of the coin were exceptionally nice. Coin brought $9,350.00.

Side notes:

This one was probably purchased by Eliasberg before the breakup of several rolls of 1916's in an estate in the Northeast. I saw one of these rolls in 1953/1954. All were blast white and I believe many were sold by New York dealer, Lester Merkin. I purchased my first 1916 from Lester. Presently, it is in an NGC65 FH holder.

Interestingly, the 1916 Standing Liberty Quarter is the only 20th Century coin that the Salomon Brothers and Stack's put into a portfolio that compared coins with other investments. Incidentally, this investment comparison ended in 1991.

1917D Type 1:

This piece was outstanding in every respect. It was listed as "MS 66. Full Head", but brought MS67 money, plus. Coin brought: $7,700.00

1917S Type 2:

Stunning! One of the most remarkable pieces in the sale. Listed as "MS 67. Full Head", but appeared to be a hands-down MS67 or better. Was without any bagmarks or slide lines or fingerprints. The full head was one of the finest in the entire series - an ultimate full head: strike was full and rounded and none comes nicer. Outstanding in every respect and coin brought: $37,400.00. It is now in an NGC68 FH holder.

1918/7S:

Another remarkable coin of the sale! Listed very conservatively as "MS63.", but now has very probably been encapsulated an MS64 or better.* Very fresh and new and nearly bagmark free. The coin did have a small bagmark on the eagle's right wing.

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

Subscription Information: A subscription to the weekly Coin Dealer Newsletter (Greysheet) is: $54.00 for six months, $98.00 for one year and $162.00 for two years. Phone: (310) 515-7369

It has an exceptionally well rounded leg and knee. It has more than one half of a full head, characteristic of the overdate. Coin brought $37,400.00.

*At this writing, there is a total of 5 mint state pieces with Full Heads listed with the professional grading services: 3 pieces in the PCGS "Population Report" and 2 pieces in the NGC "Census Report". The MS64FH listed in each is the same coin. All are extremely rare.

1918D: Was listed as "MS66. 95% Full Head". This piece has a sharp Full Head and has nice light lilac toning. Coin Brought: $7,150.00.

1918S: It has slabbed PCGS64 FH though technically, I believe it is an MS65 FH although it has weakness in her right thigh and torso.

1919D: A collector's DREAM PIECE, but not quite a Full Head! Brilliant, frosty and lustrous with just a hint of lilac blue on the obverse and reverse. Well matched color and appearance. Has since been encapsulated NGC MS67. Coin brought: $6,600.00. Listed as "MS66. 80% Full Head".

1919S: Not quite as nice as the 1919D but still very desirable. Listed as "MS 66. 90% Full Head, but had light slidemarks on Miss Liberty's face. Bidding opened at only $2,000.00, but final price was $6,380.00.

1920D: This piece was listed as "MS 66. 90% Full Head" In reality this piece has a nice sharp Full Head. I saw the piece as: obverse is white, frosty and brilliant - reverse was cloudy perhaps being stored next to paper or in an album with paper backing? Coin brought $5,720.00.

1920S: Lustrous and brilliant, but as is the case with most 1920S's, virtually no head. Has now been encapsulated by NGC as MS67. Coin brought: $3,960.00. Listed as "MS 66. 50% Full Head".

1921: Listed in the catalog as "MS 66. 70% Full Head". I saw this one as an MS65. Had a couple of bagmarks and brought $1,760.00.

1923S:

Listed as "MS 67. Full Head". I thought the head lacked a bit in detail, or "just made it". Also had a scratch in the mid torso of Miss Liberty. Perhaps a staple scratch? Coin brought $10,450.00.

1926D & S:

Each piece very flatly struck. 50% Full Head or less. Consequently, the "D" brought only $660.00 and the "S" brought $1,650.00. "D" listed as "MS 65. 50% Full Head" "S" listed as "MS 65. 50% Full Head".

1927S:

This piece was less than spectacular, as the coin had many fine hairlines - mostly hidden with original toning. Hairlines could easily have been overlooked by the cataloger. One of the few pieces that went to mail bidders that evening. Opened and closed at $7,000.00, plus buyer's fee. Listed as "MS 65."

Keep in mind that this collection was assembled before collectors were made aware that Full Heads on Standing Liberty Quarters are very popular and scarce.

When I examined the Smithsonian Institution's collection of Standing Liberty Quarters a couple of years ago, the collection seemed concentrated on clean fields... Full Heads were not a criteria for collectors back then.. Perhaps this is a carryover of the early U.S. Large Cent collectors? Clean fields used to be one of the descriptive adjectives that was used in describing large cents.

All in all, this was a fabulous, history making sale that set MANY new records. I am sure several of these records will stand for many years. I was privileged to be a participant!!

Jay H. Cline is a Standing Liberty Quarter specialist, having written several books on this subject. He is a full-time dealer and can be reached at PO Box 68, Palm Harbor, Fl. 34682 or by phone, 800-749-2207.

Editor's Note:

The Louis E. Eliasberg, Sr., Collection of United States Coins is the only known complete collection of U.S. coins to have ever been assembled. It is easy to understand why so many rarities from the Eliasberg collection, seldom, if ever get their just recognition. The enormous quantity of major and minor rarities that abound in this collection tend to dwarf what otherwise would be major highlights of a lesser auction. We appreciate Mr Cline's expertise in this specialized area. We're certain that many additional series or specific coins from the Eliasberg Collection will have their day in a future article.

MS65 DEEP MIRROR PROOFLIKE MORGAN DOLLARS

These Uncommonly Beautiful Renditions
Of The Minter's Art
Represent One Of The Most Undervalued
Areas Of The Rare Coin Market!

by Mike DeFalco

Those of you who read my article in the July 11, 1997 issue of the COIN DEALER newsletter MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT know of my disdain for common date Mint State Morgan Dollars (or any common "generic" issue for that matter) from an investment perspective. Nevertheless, MS65 Deep Mirror Prooflike Morgan Dollars are another matter entirely!

Since the early 1970's I have purchased and sold untold thousands of uncirculated Morgan Dollars. In fact, I was among a small group of pioneers (including such notables as Wayne Miller, John Love and Dean Tavenner), who developed a separate market and strong collector following for prooflike specimens. Furthermore, Wayne Miller acquired a number of the coins contained within his legendary Silver Dollar collection, directly from me. I was indeed privileged to be counted among the contributors to his monumental work on the subject, which was titled "The Morgan and Peace Dollar Textbook." During the course of my career, I have handled more than my share of superb quality Silver Dollars (including a number of the finest and rarest Morgan Dollars in existence). My lengthy tenure and the profusion of coins I have handled, qualify my commentary on this segment of the marketplace.

One fact has remained constant during my 30 years of active participation amidst numerous grading and market changes, hoard discoveries and the like ... true Gem quality Deep Mirror Prooflike examples comprise only a minute percentage of the extant population of Morgan Dollars. I wholeheartedly held to that belief more than 20 years ago ... and now, the PCGS Population Report confirms it beyond a shadow of a doubt.

According to the July 1997 issue, PCGS has graded a total of 185,905 MS65 Morgan Dollars, while a scant 3,607 have achieved a grade designation of MS65 DMPL. That figure represents less than 2% of the current Mint State 65 PCGS population ... making the Deep Mirror prooflike specimens 51.5 times rarer!

To fully comprehend the reason behind this rarity ratio, one must first understand what caused the appearance of mirror surfaces on Silver Dollars. Initially, the field of the die was highly polished prior to its introduction into the coining process. The continuous striking of coins eventually led to a gradual deterioration of the reflective mirror surface of these dies. Successive coins would result in less deeply mirrored fields until no trace of reflectivity remained. According to Miller's book, it is estimated that the prooflike effect would only be transferred to the first 500 to 2,000 coins. Considering the enormous number of coins struck per die pair, it is no wonder that Deep Mirror Prooflike specimens represent an extremely small number of the total coins produced.

The most common date Morgan Dollar in MS65 DMPL condition has a PCGS population of less than 500 coins! The date to which I'm referring is the 1880 S, of which PCGS has graded 527 MS65 DMPL's compared to a total MS-65 population of 21,000! It is obvious that MS65 DMPL 1880 S Dollars are much more rare - 39.8 times as rare to be exact - and yet, are valued at less than three times the price of a non-prooflike specimen. It doesn't take a genius to recognize where the real value (and potential for capital appreciation) lies ... and bear in mind - this date is the most common of all. Although the following three issues are also among the most readily available dates, I believe you'll find that the population<sup>1</sup> and price<sup>2</sup> comparisons, provide a compelling reason to seriously consider acquiring MS65 DMPL Morgan dollars at this time.

DATE	POPULATION MS65 DMPL	POPULATION MS65	RARITY FACTOR MS65 DMPL	BID PRICE MS65	BID PRICE MS65 DMPL
1881 S	200	31,587	157.9X	$ 70	$210
1883 CC	379	3,641	9.6X	$145	$310
1884 CC	309	3,370	10.9X	$140	$290

These three dates (along with the aforementioned 1880 S), have a combined PCGS MS65 DMPL population of 1,415 coins. That figure represents 39.2% of the entire population of MS65 DMPL's graded thus far, notwithstanding the fact that these are the most abundant issues. It is quite clear that they exemplify solid value and are a prudent acquisition at current price levels. However, the best is yet to come. Ensuing is an analysis of 33 different issues in PCGS MS65 DMPL condition. My selections were based upon the following simple criteria that each coin must have a population of at least 10, but no more than 200. Therefore, certain coins represent a much better value than others, however, there are no laggards on this list.

DATE	POPULATION MS65 DMPL	POPULATION MS65	RARITY FACTOR MS65 DMPL	BID PRICE MS65	BID PRICE MS65 DMPL

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer, wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

This analysis is by no means comprehensive, but it is a very equitable representation. It effectively eliminates the most common issues, as well as those which are virtually unobtainable, thereby representing the optimum issues from an investment perspective. Moreover, this analysis clearly illustrates the primary point I wish to make ... MS65 DMPL's are truly rare by any measure and are drastically undervalued at today's price levels, particularly in relation to their non-prooflike counterparts. In fact, I would even go so far as to say most issues are absurdly cheap!

Take for example, the 1882 S Morgan Dollar, which is a very common coin in MS65 condition (10,800 graded by PCGS so far), but quite rare in MS65 DMPL (PCGS has graded only 26 examples). According to the August 15th issue of the CCDN ... MS65's have a wholesale Bid of $77, while MS65 DMPL's are valued at $590. What's wrong with this picture? If you don't know, I'm going to enlighten you now.

Although this date is more than 400 times rarer in MS65 DMPL condition, it is currently valued at less than 8 times the price of its MS65 counterpart. I'm not implying that I believe it is worth 400 times as much. I am, however, suggesting that this date is ridiculously undervalued in relation to its true rarity (the same can be said for most other issues), and even a modest increase in demand could cause its value to soar. After all, the total market capitalization required for the entire population of PCGS MS65 DMPL 1882 S dollars is a paltry $15,340 (assuming you could acquire all of them at the current Bid price of $590 each), which brings up another extremely important issue ... current DMPL valuations!

It is noteworthy to mention that prices reported in the CCDN are sight-unseen Bids. The fact is, very few DMPL Dollars trade on a sight-unseen basis. In most instances a significant premium will be required to purchase top flight specimens. The reason for this is twofold: First, the addition of reflective surfaces adds an entirely new dimension to the grading equation. The depth and amount of reflectivity, as well as the state of preservation of the fragile mirror surfaces, can and does vary greatly from coin to coin within the same grade category. The fact is, not all M65 DMPL's are created equal. This statement applies to Deep Mirror Prooflike Morgan Dollars more than any other area of the rare coin market. Simply put ... the nicest specimens justifiably command a premium. Second, the DMPL market is one of the most undervalued areas of the numismatic marketplace. Therefore, it is nearly impossible to locate motivated sellers (with really nice DMPL Dollars) at today's ultra-low, sight-unseen Bid prices.

The fact is, current low values for DMPL Dollars is an anomaly. Unlike many of the non-DMPL issues - not one single date has experienced a significant population increase - by no means of a magnitude which would provide a reasonable explanation as to why values declined by 50% to 90%. Here's a prime example: Since November '88, the value of MS65 1879 S dollars has declined by nearly 85%, while the population has increased by nearly 12,000 coins ... ample justification for the decrease in value! However, during the same time period, 1879 S MS65 DMPL's dropped nearly 90% (an even greater decline) ... and yet the population increased by just 99 coins. Even if the populations were identical - a DMPL would still be worth a 25% to 100% premium in any knowledgeable dealer's book. Considering the situation today, it appears as if DMPL Dollars carry a negative premium! AN ANOMALY??? You bet, and one you should certainly take advantage of - because they only come along once in a great while.

This anomaly wasn't exclusively confined to MS65 DMPL Morgan Dollars, but spread throughout all grade categories - therefore, opportunity abounds across the board. I wholeheartedly believe, all MS64 DMPL Dollars (with the exception of 3 or 4 of the most common dates), are tremendously undervalued as well ... and are prime candidates for capital appreciation. In terms of MS66 and MS67 DMPL's, these are the crème de la crème of the Silver Dollar market. They are stand alone rarities which possess explosive growth potential.

In conclusion, I want to make it perfectly clear that any attempt to acquire a meaningful position of DMPL Morgan Dollars will require patience. In addition, you must be willing to pay a premium that may seem substantial. In reality, however, the premium you pay today will pale into insignificance when this segment of the rare coin market begins to appreciate. Available supplies of MS65 DMPL's are exceedingly limited while demand is intensifying. The choicest specimens are being enthusiastically pursued by an increasing number of dedicated collectors, farsighted investors and astute dealers. And only those who possess the innate ability to recognize exceptional value ... when it stares them in the face, will prosper from this remarkable opportunity.

Why Collect Proof Half Cents? The Numbers May Surprise You

by James R. McGuigan

Introduction

One of the most neglected areas of U.S. coinage is Proof Half Cents. While there are many collectors of Half Cents by type, date, and die variety, most collect only "regular issue" (i.e., business strike) dates or varieties. Many of the Proof-only dates are very rare, with less than 30 or so Originals known and fewer than 60 total pieces if Restrikes are included. Proof Half Cents, despite being comparable in rarity to many low mintage Proof silver coins of this era, often sell for only a small fraction of the prices of these other rarities. This article provides some background information on the dates and varieties of Proof Half Cents, data on certified Proof Half Cents, sources of price data for this series, and comments on collecting Proof Half Cents by type, date, or die variety.

Dates and Varieties

The U.S. Mint began coining Half Cents in 1793. While Proof or "presentation" coins in the pre-1800 era are known for various other denominations, no Proof Half Cents prior to 1811 are known.

Classic Head Proofs. According to Walter Breen, the first Proof or "presentation" Half Cents were struck in 1811 and are extremely rare (possibly unique).<sup>1</sup> The April 1997 NGC Population Report lists only one "specimen" 1811—a different example from the one cited by Breen.

Beginning in 1825, Half Cent production was resumed after a 14-year hiatus. Breen lists Proof Half Cents for all the dates in the 1820's (i.e., 1825, 1826, 1828, and 1829) as being extremely rare—either R8 (1-3 known) or R7 (4-12 known).<sup>2</sup> Knowledgeable experts disagree concerning the status as Proofs of some of these specimens. Some examples lack one (or more) of the criteria necessary to merit being called Proofs, e.g., square rims, mirror fields, depth of strike, etc. For example, a couple of the coins listed in Breen's census are described as "one-sided Proofs"—Proof obverse/Uncirculated reverse. As of May 1997, neither PCGS nor NGC had graded any Proof Half Cents from the 1820's.

The U.S. Mint struck Proof Half Cents for only six years in the 1830's—1831 to 1836. While 2,200 business strikes were reportedly coined in 1831, Proof examples (including Restrikes) of this date are actually more readily available than are circulated (business strike?) examples.<sup>3</sup> In 1836, Half Cents were only struck in Proof. Restrikes of 1831 and 1836 were made at the Mint during the 1858-1860 period and possibly again during 1868-1869. The 1831 First Restrikes were coined from the 1831 Original obverse die and the same reverse die used to strike the 1836 Originals. The 1831 Second Restrikes were made from the 1831 Original obverse die and a reverse die of the type used to strike Braided Hair Half Cents. The 1836 First Restrikes are from the same dies as the 1836 Originals. These Restrikes can be distinguished from the Originals since they were struck from a slightly buckled obverse die and have squarer rims than the Originals. The 1836 Second Restrikes were struck from the 1836 Original obverse die combined with the Braided Hair reverse die described above. Most of the Proofs issued during the 1830's are either R7 (4-12 known) or R6 (13-30 known). The most common date is 1833, which is an R5 (31-75 known).

Braided Hair Proofs. Beginning with 1840, Proof Half Cents were coined for each year until 1857, with the exception of 1853. The dates 1840 to 1848, 1849 Small Date, and 1852 were struck only in Proof, that is, no business strikes were coined. Originals were struck from a reverse die having Large Berries in the wreath. While most of the Originals were struck in the year dated, Breen has hypothesized that some specimens of the Originals were struck later, i.e., 1858-1860.<sup>4</sup> The Restrikes have Small Berries in the wreath. First Restrikes are identified by die doubling, which is most noticeable on the right edges of "T" in "CENT" and the ribbon. Second Restrikes are identified by die file marks above "RICA" in "AMERICA". The Restrikes of 1856 and 1857 were coined using the First Restrike reverse die described above. All of these Restrikes are believed to have been made during the 1858-1860 period. Most of the Braided Hair Proofs are either R7 (4-12 known), R6 (13-30 known), or R5 (31-75 known)—the exceptions being the 1849 Large Date, which is an R8 (1-3 known) and the 1856 and 1857 Restrikes, which are R4's (76-200 known).

Certified Proof Half Cents

Condition. Proof Half Cents have survived in fairly high grades. Table 1 shows the grade distribution of PCGS and NGC certified Proof Half Cents as of May 1997.<sup>5</sup> As can be seen in the table, among the 445 pieces submitted to the grading services, over one-fourth (26.7%) have been graded PR65 or better and almost two-thirds (64.2%) have been graded PR64 or better.<sup>6 7</sup>

Relative rarity. The relative rarity of the various Proof-only and regular-issue dates is shown in Table 2. Among the Proof-only dates (1836, 1840-1848, 1849SD, and 1852), the total number of pieces graded ranges from 13 (R6) for the 1849SD to 47 (R5) for the 1852, with most pieces being R6. With respect to the regular-issue dates (1831-1835, 1849LD-1851, 1854-1857), certified examples of some of the dates are extremely rare (R7 or R8), such as the 1831 Original, 1832, 1835, 1849LD, 1851, and 1854), while other dates are only moderately rare (R5 or R6), such as the 1833, 1834, and 1857.

Source of Price Information

The CDN Quarterly I Newsletter contains price data for the various dates of Classic Head and Braided Hair Half Cents in PR63, PR64, and PR65 grades. The prices shown are for "raw" (i.e., uncertified) specimens and generally represent the wholesale prices for the most common die variety of each year. From the July 11, 1997 CDN Quarterly I Newsletter, we see that common-variety Proof Half Cents in the grades most frequently encountered (i.e., PR63, PR64 and PR65) are priced from $3,100 to $14,000 for the Classic Heads and from $2,700 to $7,500 for the Braided Hairs. Most dates are priced in the $3,000+ to $5,000+ range in choice (PR63 BN or RB) or very choice (PR64 BN or RB) condition. These values are also representative of wholesale prices for "low-end" certified common-variety Proof Half Cents. "Premium quality" certified specimens, that dealers feel can be "cracked out" and resubmitted to the grading services for a higher grade, or scarce die varieties often trade at significant premiums above the prices shown in the CDN.

Price data for the Original and Restrike varieties of Proof Half Cents is not readily available. The CDN Quarterly I Newsletter does not contain any information on these varieties and Coin World contains only limited price information on Originals and Restrikes. The "Redbook"<sup>8</sup> provides some information concerning the relative values of these coins. Generally the Restrike is priced lower than the Original for each date. Except for 1831, the "Redbook" does not list separate prices for the First and Second Restrikes of each date. The best source of price information for die varieties is prices realized at major public auctions. Some of the largest offerings of Proof Half Cents at public auctions during the past 15 years include:

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer, wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

Collecting Proof Half Cents

Proof Half Cents can be collected by Type, date or die variety.

Type. From Table 1, it can be seen that nearly 450 Proof Half Cents have been graded—nearly 100 Classic Heads and close to 350 Braided Hairs. Obtaining attractive Proof specimens of these two different designs for a Type set is not too difficult since examples generally are available at major coin shows and appear frequently in major auctions.

Date. Collecting the Proof-only Half Cents by date represents a significant challenge. Attendance at major shows and auctions over a period of possibly a couple of years or longer may be required to complete such a set. Completing a set of the regular-issue dates in Proof represents a much greater challenge, since PCGS- and NGC- certified examples of some of the dates (e.g., 1832, 1851, and 1854) are extremely rare and seldom available for sale.

Die variety. Assembling a collection of all the 50+ die varieties of Proof Half Cents requires patience and a substantial financial commitment. Many of the extremely rare die combinations are available only infrequently when major collections are sold, either at public auction or by private treaty. Obtaining all (or almost all) of the die varieties in Proof would probably take a decade or longer and would require an expenditure of a half million dollars or more. Several of the Proof-only die varieties, such as the 1831 second restrike, 1836 Second Restrike, and 1852 Large Berries (so-called "Original"), have auction records in excess of $50,000.

Summary

In summary, we see that relative to later Proof coin issues (i.e., those date 1858 and later), the mintages of Proof Half Cents are quite low. Additionally, from PCGS and NGC population data, we see that these coins survived in fairly choice condition. Furthermore, most Proof Half Cents are relatively inexpensive compared with many Proof silver coins of similar rarity and condition from this era. This series deserves serious consideration by advanced collectors who are looking for coins that are old, rare, and obtainable in choice condition. Whether you decide to add a couple of Proof Half Cents to your Type set, complete a date set of the Proof-only issues, or seek to obtain all the various Proof die varieties, you will have the satisfaction of owning some truly rare, early U.S. coins.

<sup>3</sup> Because of the reported mintage of 2,200 pieces, 1831 is not considered a Proof-only date by Walter Breen, Roger Cohen, and other researchers. However, mintage records during this period are unreliable. Furthermore, no Mint state Originals are known, and, of the approximately 20 circulated pieces that exist, none are of high enough quality to determine whether they are circulated Proofs or circulated business strikes. Therefore, it is impossible to determine with certainty whether any 1831 business strikes were minted.

<sup>5</sup> The PGCS Population Report, May 1997; NGC Census Report, April 1997.

<sup>6</sup> One needs to be careful about making inferences with respect to all Proof Half Cents from grading service data. For example, since higher quality pieces are more likely to be submitted to the grading services than are lower quality coins, the grade distribution of this group of coins (i.e., sample) may not be exactly representative of the grade distribution of all Proof Half Cents (i.e., population).

<sup>7</sup> The reader should keep in mind that the tables include "crack outs" that were resubmitted to the grading services. Therefore, the actual number of different coins may be somewhat less than the 445 pieces listed.

The Charlotte Gold Market, 1987-1997: A Decade Brings Radical Changes

by Douglas Winter

Since my first book in 1987 on Charlotte Gold ("Charlotte Mint Gold Coins: 1838-1861, A Numismatic History and Analysis"), the ensuing decade has brought changes in the Charlotte market so radical that I have been compelled to rewrite and totally update this book.

In preparation of my new book on Charlotte gold coins, I have been amazed at the breadth of the changes that have characterized this market in the past decade. My first book on Charlotte has become so out-of-date that when people inquire as to its availability, I tell them not to buy it and to wait for the revision.

As I have been researching the various Charlotte issues, I have made some interesting observations. The following areas represent, in my opinion, the biggest changes that have pervaded the Charlotte market (many of these changes can also be applied to the "rare date gold" market as a whole).

The Advent Of Certified Grading

The population and Condition Census data in the 1987 edition of my book were based on research done in the mid-1980's. This was before the creation of PCGS and NGC. Needless to say, the changes brought about by these two services have had profound effects—both good and bad—on the Charlotte market and on numismatics as a whole. Some of the changes are obvious. After ten years of grading Charlotte coins, enough pieces have been seen by the services to create a useful population and grade distribution database. Everyone knows that the numbers in the PCGS Population Report and NGC Census Report are skewed due to resubmissions, crossovers, etc. However, this data is far more advanced than anything available in 1987. For the first time, it is possible to get meaningful comparative rarity data. As an example, the population reports are best used in determining how rare an 1840-C half eagle in Extremely Fine-45 is relative to an 1850-C half eagle in the same grade. In 1987, this data was far more speculative and open to interpretation. Today, the collector can easily find out if the information he is being told about a specific coin or date is accurate.

An Increase In The Population Of High Grade Coins

For a variety of reasons, the known number of important high grade Charlotte gold coins has dramatically increased in the past decade. Some of the reasons for this include the following: rising prices have brought new coins into the market and many old collections have been sold and some previously unknown hoards or accumulations have quietly entered the market. Population "explosions" for a few dates are readily noticeable. One example of this is the 1838-C quarter eagle. When the 1987 edition of my book was released, I estimated that only three to four were known in Mint State. In the 1998 edition, my estimate of Mint State examples has been revised upwards to seven or eight coins. In 1987,

I estimated the number of Mint State 1844-C half eagles to be two or three; today, I can account for five separate pieces. These numbers may not sound significant when compared to very common coins but in a narrow, tightly traded field such as Charlotte gold, these increases are dramatic.

An Increase In Prices

Many series of coins have seen dramatic downward movement in prices when viewed as a whole from 1987 to 1997. Collector-based series such as Charlotte gold, on the other hand, have seen very solid increases. The following chart takes the most common dates in all three denominations from this Mint and compares the 1987 Redbook prices with those in the 1997 edition of this book as well as the current wholesale Bid prices in the CDN Quarterly.

Date/Denom	1987 RedBook			1997 RedBook			Current CDN Bid
	EF-40	AU-50	MS-60	EF-40	AU-50	MS-60	EF-40	AU-50	MS-60
1851-C $1.00	500	825	2,000	700	1,000	2,500	500	750	1,750
1847-C $2.50	450	900	2,500	900	1,900	5,750	800	1,550	4,500
1847-C $5.00	750	1,000	3,000	1,200	3,000	10,000	850	2,450	9,000

As this chart shows, the retail prices for even the most common Charlotte coins increased considerably in the past decade. Many coins doubled in price and one, the 1847-C half eagle in MS-60, tripled. These prices are even more dramatic when one examines the levels for rarer dates or for extremely high grade coins (i.e., Mint State-62 and above). Simply put, high grade examples of Charlotte gold have proven to be an excellent investment during a period when the overall rare coin market has seen a lot more downswings in price than upward movement (at least since 1990).

A Change In Grading Standards

The most important thing to remember about grading is that, despite claims to the contrary, it remains highly subjective. It is hard enough to get a group of experts to agree on Mint State common date Morgan Dollar grades, let alone complex issues such as Charlotte coins. In the late 1980's/early 1990's, PCGS and NGC began grading significant amounts of Charlotte gold coins. For the most part, the grading standards of that era tended to be very conservative. Today, standards have relaxed considerably. In my opinion, the EF45 of the late 1980's is an AU50 (or even an AU53) today. And the AU-55 of the late 1980's is an MS-60 (or even an MS-61) today. The primary effect of this is to provide an unrealistic picture of availability for certain issues. As an example, as of September 1997, PCGS had graded 41 1849-C half eagles in the various About Uncirculated grades. In the forthcoming revision of my Charlotte book, I estimate that the total number of 1849-C half eagles known to exist in all AU grades is 35-37. It is my opinion that many of the 17 coins graded AU-50 by PCGS (as well as some of the 10 coins graded AU-53 by this service) are coins that would have graded Extremely Fine a decade ago.

The Fall And Decline Of "Crust"

I am an advocate for not altering the original surfaces of gold coins. To my eyes, there is nothing more attractive than a Charlotte piece with layers of old "crust." (I define "crust" as original toning over a heavy layer of natural "skin" on a coin's surface that develops over time.) To me, originality provides great eye appeal. Unfortunately, the two grading services have unwittingly contributed to the destruction of a great number of gold coins by penaliz-

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer, wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

ing them for originality. It is my experience that if you submit a "crusty," original AU-50 coin, it is invariably graded EF-45. But, if you take the same coin, scrub off the crust and make it bright, it will grade AU-50 to AU-55. Ironically, the financial incentive for submitters is to destroy their coins in order to maximize their value. This is especially true in a market such as Charlotte gold where the difference between an EF-45 and an AU-50 can be thousands of dollars. As time passes, I think the number of truly original Charlotte coins will continue to shrink. The few remaining coins with original surfaces will invariably trade for strong premiums among knowledgeable buyers and unwitting new collectors and investors will get stuck with the low-end, unnaturally bright dregs.

A Shift In the Supply And Demand Ratio For Charlotte Gold

One of the major reasons why common date coins have dropped significantly in price in the 1990's is the fact that more and more come onto the market while fewer collectors, investors and dealers are around to absorb them. Charlotte gold coins are one of the few series where the supply/demand ratio has been such that enough new collectors have come into the market to absorb the coins that have come onto the market. A typical "common date" Charlotte half eagle has a surviving population of 150-200 pieces. At least half of these coins are in very low grades and, therefore, are of little interest to collectors. Another large group is either in museums or in tightly held private collections and is off the market. Suddenly, an original population of 150-200 may now have shrunk to twenty or fewer coins that are of the quality that an advanced collector will find acceptable. If there are 50-100 serious collectors of Charlotte gold (and my guess is that the actual number is greater than this), then there exists a demand for coins that is two to five times greater than the actual supply. The result is that prices for Charlotte gold coins have risen and should continue to do so as fewer and fewer coins are chased by more and more collectors.

Many Major Collections Are Sold And Many New Players Enter The Market

In the decade from 1987 to 1997, many of the finest collections of Charlotte gold coins ever assembled have been sold. Important collections sold at auction include Norweb (Bowers and Merena, 1987-1988). Willard Blaisdell (Stack's, 3/90), Billy Fuller (Heritage, 7/93) Reed Hawn (Stack's, 10/93), James Stack (Stack's, 10/94), R.T. Wilder (Stack's, 11/94) Ed Milas (Stack's, 5/95 and Stack's/RARCOA/Akers, 11/95) and the Pittman sale (Akers, 10/97). In addition, the Stanley Elrod collection, which is recognized by experts as the final complete set of Charlotte coins ever assembled, was sold intact and then broken-up and sold individually from 1995 to 1997. Coins from these sales now dominate the revised Condition Census listing for Charlotte gold coins and this will be reflected in my forthcoming book.

At the same time, there has been a change of leadership in the Charlotte market; both from the standpoint of the sellers and the buyers. When you consider the ten leading dealers in Charlotte gold in the current market, at least half of them were not active in 1987, and others have only recently had the financial resources available to compete in the higher end market. Of the ten leading collectors of Charlotte gold in 1987, at least half of them are either deceased or no longer active. Many of the most significant buyers had never seen a Charlotte gold coin in 1987, not to mention the fact that they were unable or unwilling to spend serious money on their current passion a decade ago.

Summary

Collectors of Charlotte gold who have been active since the mid-1980's are, no doubt, marvelling at the tremendous changes that they have seen in the past decade. The number of high grade rare coins that has been made available to them, especially in the 1990's, has been nothing short of incredible. As one collector recently said to me, half-jokingly, "It's like they reopened the Charlotte Mint for a few years and decided to give us a second chance at the really nice, rare pieces we need for our collections!" Conversely, the prices which these same collectors now have to pay for choice pieces, makes the prices of 1987 seem very, very reasonable. In 1987, the collector of average means could afford to put together a nice Extremely Fine to About Uncirculated set. Today, this set is out of the price range of the lower budget collector.

Nearly all of the major collections that have been formed since 1987 have been built around slabbed coins. Unless a Charlotte coin is from an old-time collection and is being sold at auction, the chances are good that if it is unslabbed, it has a problem.

In my opinion, the future for collector-oriented series such as Charlotte gold coins looks very bright. If we can create even a moderate number of serious new collectors, the supply/demand ratio will become even more skewed. If three or four major players decide to assemble high grade sets of Charlotte gold in the next two or three years, the supply will noticeably dwindle. This will lead to further price increases and, perhaps, even more radical market changes than the ones discussed above.

THE PITTMAN PROOF GOLD COLLECTION PERFORMANCE PLUS ... PLUS!

By Silvano DiGenova

Van Gogh, Tiffany, Rolls Royce and Chateau Lafite Rothschild are designations evocative of the world's finest and most desirable commodities. Each is peerless in their respective categories as a result of years of proven rarity, quality and desirability. When one casts the same discerning eye toward U.S. coinage, the single group of coins universally bestowed with this preeminent status is absolutely, without question, Proof Gold. These issues are not only the most aesthetically appealing examples of the coinage art form, but are quantitatively both rare and highly esteemed. As an overall series, Proof Gold struck from the 1840s to 1915, was produced in such limited quantities, no other group of coins can rival their scarcity.

I deal in numerous fine art areas (outside of the numismatic marketplace) and one thing has become profoundly obvious to me: The same essential truths which apply outside of the rare coin market, regarding value and desirability, applies within the numismatic marketplace as well. To cite a laudable comparison: A lamp purchased at Sears Roebuck & Co. in the 1880's from between $1 and $5 has limited antique significance today, with current valuations ranging from $100 to $500. Though a huge multiple of what they originally sold for, there is no comparison to a lamp produced 50 years later by Louis C. Tiffany. Lamps by Tiffany, which originally sold for between $10 and $20, presently start at the $10,000 price range! Moreover, a Tiffany lamp recently sold for more than $1 MILLION! It's original cost, you may ask? Try FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS. As you can plainly see, age is totally inconsequential. Long term capital appreciation is dependent upon rarity, quality and desirability.

Where is this leading? Numismatics has an unmatched record of capital appreciation, having outperformed virtually every other investment medium over the long term. Recently, we were blessed with a thoroughly documented example - The John Jay Pittman Collection sale!

Before I begin my analysis of the auction results, I would like to present a number of key issues for your consideration:

1. This analysis is a study of every Proof Gold piece offered in Part One of the Pittman sale, which includes, not only his shrewd deals, but the unfortunate ones as well. Due to the fact that not all of the coins were of exemplary quality (the type of which, over time have proven to be the best investment), the figures represented become even more conservative.

2. John Pittman was a retail buyer. Though a sharp buyer ... he was nonetheless a retail buyer. Many of his coins were acquired at very hefty premiums considering the era.

3. The prices realized do not include the 10% buyer's premium. Therefore, the net proceeds to the family represent 90% of the actual sale price.

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The Coin Dealer Newsletter (USPS # 008248) is published by CDN Inc., 18807 Crenshaw Place, Torrance, CA 90504-5923. Periodicals postage paid at Torrance, CA. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to CDN, P.O. Box 11099, Torrance, CA 90510.

INVESTORS NOTE: The prices in the Newsletter are from Dealer-to-Dealer transactions. As an investor, you may buy and sell coins through a dealer for a fee.

Subscription Information: A subscription to the weekly Coin Dealer Newsletter (Greysheet) is: $54.00 for six months, $98.00 for one year and $162.00 for two years. Phone: (310) 515-7369

stant throughout the years. In other words, the exact group of coins, which Mr. Pittman originally acquired, are the very same coins, which were recently sold at auction. Conversely, the S&P 500 has been modified a number of times over the years to remove inferior stocks. Therefore, it is clearly overstated as it is represented today.

THE PITTMAN PROOF U.S. GOLD PIECES YIELD AN ASTOUNDING 300.65% AVERAGE ANNUAL RETURN! In contrast, consider the performance (on a total return basis) of the following benchmarks for Mutual Fund Investors (see chart A, first page):

Although this comparison isn't exactly apples to apples (the overall average holding period for the Pittman coins was 40 years) – the last 10 years have seen the greatest bull market in the history of Wall Street, with stocks now trading at an all-time high – while the Pittman coins were sold near an 8 year cyclical low in the numismatic market. However, the profundity of the yield earned by the Pittman Family cannot be denied by even the most cynical investor or rare coin antagonist.

The four accompanying charts represent an in-depth date by date analysis of the performance of the John Jay Pittman Proof Gold coin collection:

These results are nothing short of incredible. Mr. Pittman's original investment of $31,651.25 returned a total of $3,838,000! The total percentage return was 12,026%, which when annualized over a 40 year holding period, yielded an average annual return of 300.65% ... most impressive by any measure, particularly when compared to the performance of the S & P 500 over the same period of time.

At year's end in 1957, the S&P stood at approximately 42 (averaging 42.5 throughout the decade of the 1950's). Based upon the current S&P of 950, the total percentage return is 2,175%, or an average annual return of 54%.

Pittman's Proof Gold coins were originally purchased on a retail level and subsequently sold on liquidation basis (instead of earnestly working the coins into the market). Yet, he achieved a return of nearly 6 times that of the S&P 500 ... at an all-time high in the stock market.

In conclusion, acquiring and holding rare U.S. coins (particularly Proof Gold) over the long-term can be an immensely enjoyable pursuit as well as a richly rewarding investment. It provides the ultimate store of wealth and privacy.

The world's most important coins are consistently graded by NGC.

At NGC, we've been consistently grading some of the world's most renowned coins. Like the unique "EB on breast" Garrett/Parrino Brasher Doubloon, the magnificent PF-66 Eliasberg/Parrino 1913 Liberty Head Nickel, or the remarkable Eliasberg/Spectrum 1884 Trade Dollar. Not to mention many other important coins from the Eliasberg, Byron Reed, and Trompeter collections. And, the complete Overton collection. This is to name just a few examples.

While we are grading more of the world's finest coins, we are also grading more coins than ever, now averaging 38,000 coins per month. Still, big numbers mean less to us than our efforts to ensure that each coin is graded accurately, consistently, and impartially.

This is why NGC is endorsed by the ANA as its official grading service, and why we're the grading service of choice for more of the world's finest collections, and the world's finest coins, like yours. It's also why we have the largest dealers network, at 1,250-plus member dealers.

You can also count on more of our innovative leadership in services that meet the needs of the hobby and the professions. NGC was first to offer Economy service, World Coin grading, PreScreen service, a security hologram, and the PhotoProof full-color digital imaging and presentation service. Count on NGC to continue innovating as we move into the next millennium.

When it matters to you that your coins are graded with lasting accuracy, choose NGC... the consistent choice for certifying the world's most important coins, like yours.

Mail to Dealers It's Easy!

Need to contact America's leading numismatic dealers? Make your advertising and postage dollars count with America's best dealer listing. The company name and numismatist sections of the

1997 Numismatic Dealer Directory™

are available for rental. Since the Directory is fully copyrighted, this is your only source for this proven list of approximately 5,000+ current names and addresses. And current is a promise taken seriously - the data base is updated daily. All for only $325 - well below the mailing industry standard of $75/thousand.
